PREFACE

About five years ago I started to study the "Lackors" seriously. This family has "grown" and taken shape from a dozen or so names which were noted down by my grandmother and other items given to me by my father. Some branches were located by chance from correspondence to a name in a phone book—others were the results of leads by county clerks, and so on. In any case, I believe the family is now established, although it probably will never be "completed."

Basically, this genealogy has followed the descendants of three of the sons of John Lackor of the third generation; viz: John Allen Lackor, Renssellaer Lackor and Timothy Smith Lackor [Smith]. After leaving Massachusetts, as youths, with their family, they were in Ontario County (now Yates), New York. Next, either they, or their children, moved to Niagara County, New York, and from there, descendants have branched out to all parts of the country. The first few chapters pertain to the first three generations, after which the book is divided into chapters dealing specifically with each of the above-mentioned sons by generation.

So many people have helped in the preparation of this book that I couldn't possibly name them all. Generally, though, I am grateful to the help from my father and to all of the families I have corresponded with who have cooperated in sending me information and leads for further searching. Many church and county clerks and other record custodians have been most helpful. I am indeed fortunate in having access to the wonderful libraries in my area; using their readers for the microfilmed censuses as well as their vast collections of books and microfilms.

What started out five years ago as curiosity has turned into a fascinating study in the development of early American history. In the course of my correspondence, I feel I have made some fine "friends" from my "relatives."

I have included herein all the data which was received before July 1969. It is inevitable that errors will appear, for which I apologize. I hope these will be called to my attention, along with additional information.

I—JOHN LACORE—THE FOUNDER

1. John Lacore.

Frequently genealogies commence with a chapter entitled "English Ancestry." This book starts with "John Lacore." Nothing at all has been learned of his background, nor, for that matter, when or how he arrived in this country. He may have been in the large group of French Huguenots who settled in Massachusetts or he might have come from England or Scotland.

The spelling of his name does not help to solve his origin. Sometimes three or four different spellings occur for one person. From 1701 until about 1860, the following variations are found:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Lacoar | Lacore | Laccoar |
| Lackor | Lacour | Laicore |
| Lecore | Locker | Lucore |
| Lacord | LaCore | Lacker |
| Lackore | Lakuor | Lanore |
| Leucre | Lucour | Lukore |

By the end of the nineteenth century, most of the families had adopted a particular spelling. When this is known, it will be used as reference is made to that family. Generally, I intend using the spelling "Lackor." However, this form was not common in early days, so I shall commence with "Lacore."

John Lacore's parentage, date and place of birth, date and place of death and burial place are all unknown. His marriage is the first record found of him, to Sarah (Hurley) Ferguson, widow of Richard Ferguson.[1, 2] This was in Cambridge, Mass.:

"Lanore, John (Lacore, C. R. 1) and Sarah Ferguson, Aug. 11, 1701, intention not included." [3]

Sarah Hurley had married first, on 31 July 1690, Cambridge, Richard Ferguson, who died 25 April 1701, apparently s.p. [1, 2]

I believe this is the same John Lacore who married on 27 March 1707-8, in Charlestown, Consider Lamson. [1, 2, 3]

"Lacore, John mar (2) Consider Lamson . . . "both of Camb." March 27, 1707-8" [3]

Parentage for both Sarah Hurley and Consider Lamson remains unknown. However, a William Hurry married Hannah Hett and among their many children were listed: [3]

"vi, vii, viii—Rachel, Rebecca, Sarah "born at one birth" Dec. 23, 1670; bpt. 25 (10) 1670."

It is possible that this Sarah Hurry is the same as the Sarah Hurley, but there is absolutely no proof of this.

Presumably, Sarah (Hurley, Ferguson) Lacore, first wife of John Lacore, died prior to March 1707-8 (the date of John Lacore's marriage to Consider Lamson), but no record has yet been located of her death or burial place. She, probably, was the mother of John Lacore (Jr.), born about 1706. [4]

On page 373 of the church death register [4] (page 17 of the typescript) appears this notation under the year 1793:

"March 16 John Lucore 87 yrs"

Dewey's Genealogical Notes [4] has this:

"John Lucore (Lackore, Luckore) born 1706 died 16 March 1793 ag 87 (By Wfd. 1st cong ch. records)"

The mother of this John Lacore (Jr.), born about 1706, un-

It was copied as a project of the National Youth Administration in 1937. Mrs. Clifford C. Gregg, Maple Knoll Farm, Valparaiso, Ind. 46383, a Lackore descendant, originally located this in 1954. Another typescript in the Westfield Athenaeum was also copied by the National Youth Administration (May 1936) from the original church records which the librarian believes are in the bank vault. This is entitled An Account or Register of the Deaths of Those Deceased in Westfield, 1728-1836 (From the Record of the First Church). I have just been to Westfield and I saw these typescripts. The First Congregational Church in Westfield does not have original registers before 1830. Harlan F. Torrey, 630 Ives Row, Cheshire, Conn. 06410, another Lackore descendant, in August 1967, contacted Carlyle Dewey who knew that Louis Marinus Dewey had copied the Westfield church records while doing his research on the Dewey genealogy. I did not happen to see a gravestone for John in the Old Burying Ground, Westfield, Mass.

doubtedly was John Lacore (Sr.)'s first wife, Sarah Hurley. It is possible that she died in childbirth and in the subsequent confusion, neither the child's birth nor her death was recorded.

There are deeds which establish the identity of John Lacore "of Cambridge" as being the same as the John Lacore who bought land in Rutland. These will be identified in this chapter. John Lacore (Sr.) of Rutland did have a wife named "Consider." [5] In the listing of the children of John Lacore (Jr.) it will be noted that his first child was named "Sarah."

Middlesex County deeds [6] show that:

> "John Lacore of Cambridge bought thirty acres in Rutland and 100 acre right in the first division from Daniel Shepard of Concord, yeoman, on 8 September 1718." (Throughout this deed the name was corrected from "Lacore to Laccore") [7]

John Lacore is mentioned on 10 June 1720 with settling of lots in Rutland. [8]

> "An indenture between John Lacore (spelled Lacoar) of Rutland, yeoman, on 18 September 1721, and Lawrence Delhonde of Boston, physician, on the above mentioned thirty acres [7] plus a dwelling house . . . mortgage to be paid in one year. Release is dated 23 February 1727." [9]
> "Another indenture, [10] 23 February 1727, shows that John Lacore (spelled Lacour) paid off the first mortgage by taking a new mortgage . . ."

Rutland was established 23 February 1713 from common lands, "Naquag," [11] and was granted town privileges on 18 June 1722. [11] The first settlers of Rutland were:

> ". . . respectable folk from Boston and Concord and

A muster roll of the Company in His Majesty's Service under command of Saml Wright Captain, November 1723 to June 1724, had, among the Rutland names: [13]

"John Lecore and John Lecore, Jr."

The probable date of February 1725 is given for a petition to the "Hon$^{ble}$ William Dummer Esq$^{r}$, Lt. Governor and Commander in Cheif &c . . ." signed by eight Rutland men: [14]

". . . John Laccoar Sener and John Laccoar Juner."

The above muster roll and petition are proof that both a John Lacore, Senior, and a John Lacore, Junior, were contemporaries and a birth date of about 1706 would not seem unlikely for John Lacore, Junior, to have signed the petition of probable date, February 1725.

To date, there are no later definite records of John Lacore (Sr.) or of his wife, Consider. There are no probate records, either.

Child of John and probably first wife, Sarah (Hurley, Ferguson) Lacore:

II—JOHN LACORE—THE SON

2. JOHN LACORE (John) was born about 1706,[1] probably in Cambridge, Mass.,[2] since John Lacore (Sr.) married secondly 27 March 1707-1708 Consider Lamson "both of Cambridge." His death record appears in the Westfield Congregational Church register for 1793:[1]

> "March 16 John Lucore 87 yrs"

There is a genealogical account[3] which shows:

> "John Lucore (Lackore, Luckore) born 1706 died 16 March 1793 ag 87 (By Wfd. 1st cong ch. records)"

John Lacore was living in Chester, Mass., as late as 2 September 1788,[4] when he appeared to sign a deed:

> "John Lackor of Chester, yeoman" as the grantor, and, in the body of the deed, the property is described as "bounded on the East by Land owned by John Lackor Junr."

This differentiates between John (born about 1706)[5] and his son, John. The earliest records of John Lacore (born about 1706) have also been listed in the preceding chapter. A muster roll of the Company in His Majesty's Service under command of Saml Wright Captain, November 1723 to June 1724 had, among the Rutland names: "John Lecore and John Lecore, Jr."[6]

The probable date of February 1725 is given for a petition to the "Hon$^{ble}$ William Dummer Esq$^{r}$. Lt. Governour and Commander in Cheif &c" . . . and signed by eight Rutland men, including "John Laccoar Sener and John *l*accoar Juner." [7]

JOHN LACORE (born about 1706) apparently remained in Cambridge with his family until about 1718 to 1720 [8] when they moved to Rutland. [9] He is listed as "John Lecore, yeoman of Rutland" on 17 May 1731 (3 days prior to his marriage [10]) when he bought "fifteen acres yet to be laid out in common land in Rutland" from "Thomas Starns, housewright of Worcester." [11] On 27 March 1732, "John Lacore, husbandman of Rutland" purchased "thirty acre house lot with division land, buildings, etc." in Rutland from "Lawrence Delhond, phy*sit*ion of Boston and Elizabeth his wife." The consideration was ninety-eight acres in Rutland on the west side of Delhond's farm. [12] The reverse of this deed shows that "John Lacore and Margaret his wife" transferred the ninety-eight acres to Lawrence Delhond for a deed to the thirty acres house lot, also dated 27 March 1732. [13]

The town of Pelham, Hampshire County, was established on 15 January 1743, prior to which time it was the common land called New Lisburne. [14] John Lacore (born about 1706) remained in Rutland until 1741 or 1742 when he moved to Pelham (Lisbon):

> "John Lacore, yeoman of Rutland, with dower release of Margaret" conveyed forty-nine and one quarter acres in the settled part of Rutland west of the meeting house hill, to Samuel Rogers, yeoman of Harvard, on 26 June 1741. [15]

By 25 January 1742 he was already located in Pelham (Lisbon) when:

> "John Crawford of Lisbon, Hampshire Co. . . . black-

[16]

This deed proves the following assumption was true: [17]

"John Lucore is listed as the owner of one half of a grist mill (valuation list, 1760), also John Crawford for half of a grist mill; perhaps they together owned one and the same mill."

At the first town meeting under the act of incorporation, held 19 April 1743 (in Pelham), among the "officers chosen to stand to ye anniversary mtg in March 1744" was included:

"Officers to Prosecute ye Law Respecting Killing Deer—Robert Maklem, John Lucore" [18]

At the annual meeting, 5 March 1749-50:

"constable for ye West end—John Lucore" [19]

On 2 March 1752, John Lucore and Jonathan Gray were chosen "Hoge Reevies." [20]

"John Lackore of Pelham, yeoman, sold . . . two parcels—ten acres and five acres—in Rutland, yet to be laid out . . . 22 June 1763 . . . recorded 30 October 1765, Worcester Co."

This is the last mention of the Lacore name in Worcester County deeds. [21]

On 28 March 1766 the appraisal and allotment of the Meeting House Pews in Pelham was made and has: [22]

> "John Laccore with two polls, one horse, two oxen, two cows, two sheep, one swine, £9.14s—personal estate, £30—real estate, £31.14s—total value"

"At a meeting of the proprietors of a township . . . called No. 9, alias Murray Field lying adjoining to Blandford, Westfield, Southampton, &c., . . . on the 5th day of January 1763 . . . Voted. That the settlers in said township be admitted upon the conditions following, viz:

In addition to Lot Number 25, he is named in deeds and one has: [25]

"The Town of Chester, Hampden County, was formerly called Murrayfield, which, as a plantation, was established as a town October 31, 1765." [34] "February 21, 1783, the name was changed from Murrayfield to Chester." [34]

On 19 December 1785 in Chester: [35]

As mentioned in the beginning of this chapter, this date of 2 September 1788 is the last record I have seen of John Lacore (born about 1706) other than the death record. [1]

III—THE FAMILY OF JOHN LACORE—THE SON

It was shown in Chapter II (notes 6-7) that John Lacore (born about 1706) grew up in Rutland, Mass., and took an active part in the protection of his community and in other town affairs. He purchased land in Rutland prior to his marriage and another land transaction was negotiated by him and his wife within a year afterwards (Chapter II, notes 11-13).

John Lacore was married in Rutland 20 May 1731, intention not recorded, to Margaret Crawford.[1]

> In a history of Rutland[2] under the heading "Presbyterians," ". . . following persons brought Letters Testimonial of their being communicants in Ireland; and were received in the Church Fellowship in Rutland, viz: . . . John Crawford & wife . . . also from other churches or admitted as new members . . . Consider, wife of John Lecore, sen . . . Margaret, dau. of John Crawford . . ."

In "The Selectmen's Minutes, 1719-1720, #116, Jan. 22, 1719":[3]

> "Sundry passengers who came from Ireland with Capt. Dennis and arrived here in November Last, viz: . . . John Crofford."

John Crawford was chosen as a tythingman on 6 July 1722.[4] We learn his wife's first name:[5]

> "John Crawford, h. Isabel decd, d. Sept. 17, 1761"

It appears John Crawford married Isabel ——— in Ireland and their daughter, Margaret, was born about 1713,[6] presumably in Ireland. I assume Isabel was Margaret's mother but this may not be so. Isabel (———) Crawford died prior to 17 September 1761 and John Crawford died 17 September 1761 in Pelham.[5] Their son, John Crawford, was born 22 September 1722 in Rutland.[1] It may have been either John Crawford Sr. or Jr. who owned the other half of the mill in Pelham (Chapter II, notes 6, 17).

The following quotation[7] is not entirely correct since John Lacore did not come from Ireland. His father's marriage in 1708 (Chapter I, note 3) and deed transaction in 1718 (Chapter I, note 6) show he was "of Cambridge."

> "John Lacore of Rutland, Mass. from Ireland before 1727; m. Margaret Crawford, May 20, 1731; ch-Sarah, Rosanna."

On page 82 of Reed's Rutland[3], one of the sources for this statement, it says:

> "also from other churches or admitted as new members . . . Consider, wife of John Lecore, sen . . ."

This was undoubtedly misinterpreted since the above quotation had followed the listing of those persons who came from Ireland.

Another source[8] writes of this settlement:

> "Most of the Rutland Settlers came with the Worcester colony and the names of the chief Scotch Irish families there belong almost as certainly with the Worcester as with the Rutland list . . . Malkem Hendery was from Rev. Mr. Haliday at Ardstraw, Co. Tyrone, the home of the McFarland. . . . It is possible that the large number of the Rutland colony came over from Ardstraw together. [6] Chester Vit. Rec. (C. R. 1 - church record, First Congregational Church). Mrs. Grace B. Oppenheimer, the Church Clerk, recently showed me these original records. Page 41 has 1775 deaths: "Margaret the wife of old Mr. John Lacore died October 21, 1775, aged 62 years. her departure was very calm, appeard to die in the Lord." Mrs. Oppenheimer took me through the cemetery across from the church and another, which had been in the valley nearer where the Lacores had lived, but in 1964 was moved up the mountain, but we found no grave for Margaret Lacore.

CHILDREN OF JOHN AND MARGARET (CRAWFORD) LACORE: [9]

i. Sarah Lacore, born 5 May 1732 Rutland, Mass.[1] (this is repeated as 6 May 1732 in Pelham).[9] Sarah Lucore married Jam(e)s Hamilton on 19 January 1758, Pelham, Mass., with intention also recorded.[5] There is no proof that the Sarah Lucore is the same as the Sarah, daughter of John Lacore, but it is quite likely. Chester, Mass., and Chesterfield, Mass., have several records of Hamilton children and probable grandchildren. This genealogy is not attempting to trace their descendants, however, so they will not be listed here. The Chester, Mass., deaths show:[6]

"Dea. James Hamilton died 28 July, 1806 (age 77, CR 1)"
"——— Hamilton, wid. Dea. James, died 26 March, 1813, aged 81. C.R.1"

The latter entry would indicate a birth year of about 1732, which corresponds with that of Sarah Lucore, daughter of John. It is possible, though, the widow of Deacon James Hamilton could have been a second wife of the same age.

A Hamilton genealogy[10] has:

"Thomas Hamilton settled in Pelham, Mass. . . . among children . . . James (Hamilton) who married 19 January 1758 Sarah Lucore . . . made settlement first in Pelham and then Chesterfield."

Another account[11] cites "James Hamilton of Chesterfield, Ms., b. ca. 1729, prob. in Worchester, mar. Pelham . . .
Jan. 19, 1758 Sarah Lucore (John & Margaret Crawford) ? b. May 5, 1732 of Rutland."

ii. Rosanna (Rossann) Lacore, born 17 November 1734,[9] Rutland (the birth date is listed in Pelham records and is the one child of John and Margaret's which shows any part of the first name, i.e. "———a, daughter"). The Rutland records [1] list her baptism there on 1 December 1734.

---

[9] Pelham Vit. Rec., 56, lists births of Lucore children of John and Margaret. The page is torn and all listings are either "d" (daughter) or "s" (son) except the second daughter, which shows the final "a" of her name.

Rosanna Lackore is shown in Chester records [6] with her marriage intention 4 December 1773 to Ebenezer Tillitson of Farmington, Conn. A deed with Lemuel Lackor of Murrayfield, yeoman, as grantee [12] refers to a certain piece of land in Murrayfield being the farm on which he (Lemuel) then dwelt, being the northerly half of Lot No. 25 and bounded westerly to the Highway to land of Rosannah Tillotson . . . signed 16 October 1779.

I am not attempting to trace descendants from this branch, so I will only include the locations of some existing records of this branch of the family. [12]

iii. Isabel Lacore. The Pelham records [5] list the birth of a daughter born 19 February 1737, Pelham, Mass. Since the record is torn, there is no indication of the first name. Pelham records [5] have:

> "Isabel Lucore marriage on 22 February 1759, Pelham, to Aaron Gray, with intention also recorded."

An article about the Gray families [13] has:

> "Aaron Gray, son of Matthew Gray, was born 4 August 1735 in Worcester, Mass. He died 4 February 1805, Pelham, Mass., and buried Quabbin Cemetery. He married first, 22 February 1759, Amherst, Isabel Lucore (Lucas), born 1737, died 29 Dec. 1794 ae. 57, New Salem; bur. Quabbin Cemetery, probable daughter of John and Margaret Lucore."

This series of articles continues with several children and [12] The Connecticut Historical Society Library has West Avon, Conn., records about them, as well as "Tillotson Notes" by Julius Gay. Elbert H. T. Miller, Genealogy of Miller and Tillotson, and Laura Miller, Fraser, Christie, Smith, Wheeler (Scottsville, N. Y. 1951) is a small printed pamphlet including information about this family. A copy is in the New Jersey Historical Society Library, Newark, N. J., but since I did not write for permission to quote any of these, I am only listing some of the items which appear in the vital and public records. Vital records for Pelham, Chester, Rutland, and Montgomery, Mass., have data, also.

later generations of this family. None of this will be included here since I am not attempting to trace this branch.

On the basis of the above mentioned death record, in 1794, the age would correspond with the birth of this daughter in 1737. Isabel is a likely name for a child of John and Margaret (Crawford) Lacore, since Margaret's mother's name presumably was Isabel.

iv. daughter[14] Lacore, born 27 June 1743 Pelham, Mass.[9] No further record.

3. v. son (probably Lemuel) Lacore, born 22 June 1745, Pelham, Mass.[9] This record, as mentioned, is torn and only lists the child as "s" for son. Since only two sons were shown and we do know that John had a son named Lemuel (see Chapter II, note 30) as shown in a deed in 1771, and Lemuel Laccore is listed separately in the 1768 valuation list (Chapter II, note 23) I am presuming this birth refers to Lemuel.

4. vi. son (probably John) Lacore, born 27 February 1749, Pelham, Mass.[9] This is also a torn record with only the notation "s" for son. A cemetery inscription indicates[15] John Lackor died 24 September 1808, aged 58 years; i.e. born 1750, or late in 1749.

vii. daughter[14] Lacore, born 29 March 1751, Pelham, Mass. No further record.

viii. daughter[14] Lacore, born 23 October 1754, Pelham, Mass. No further record.

[14] One of these three unnamed daughters might have been named Marjory. In the first place, the mother's name was Margaret. Also, History of Murrayfield, 163, regarding the Meeting-House in Chester, 19 December 1785, a list of names to occupy the Woman's side of the front gallery is given, among which is "Marjory Laccore." This could not refer to the mother, Margaret (Crawford) Lacore, since she died in 1775.[9] Neither son, Lemuel or John, had a wife named Marjory and their daughters would have been too young. The obvious explanation would be for an unmarried daughter.

IV—LEMUEL LACORE [LUCORE] [LACKORE] [1]

3. LEMUEL LUCORE (John, John). He was born 22 June 1745, Pelham, Mass. [2] So far, no record of his death date or place or burial place has been found. There is an old notation [3] which indicates that Lemuel died in Champion, Jefferson Co., N. Y. The 1820 census [4] for Champion Town shows Lemuel Lackore, with a male and female, each over forty-five, living next to Nathaniel Lackore, aged between twenty-six and forty-five. This appears to substantiate the statement made in the letter about Lemuel's living with Nathaniel in Champion. It would seem that Lemuel's wife was also there. The 1830 census [5] for Champion shows Nathaniel Lackore with the oldest male born about 1770 to 1780 and the oldest female born about 1780 to 1790. This might indicate that possibly Lemuel and his wife died between 1820 and 1830, in Champion, Jefferson Co., N. Y. This is no proof, though.

[1] This branch appears to have used two spelling variations; i.e. Lucore and Lackore. I shall use the former in referring to this Lemuel and to his son Lemuel; and Lackore, for the other children.

[2] Pelham Vit. Rec. This record of births of children of John and Margaret Lucore is torn and only the "s" for son is indicated. As explained in Chapter III, though, I feel this birth record refers to Lemuel.

[3] Mrs. Clifford C. Gregg, Maple Knoll Farm, Route 1, Valparaiso, Ind. 46383, wrote in 1965 that her grandmother worked on her LaCore family genealogy and after the latter's husband's death had lived for twenty years with Mrs. Gregg's family. Mrs. Gregg has her grandmother's notebook, which has: "My grandmother Gillett's name, before her marriage, was Martha Lackore. She had 3 brothers Lemuel*, Nathaniel and Timothy* - they married three sisters named Weaver. Nathaniel Lackore was born 15 June 1780 in Westfield, Hampshire Co., Mass. and married Sarah Weaver who was born Feb. 10th, 1785 - they were married at Martinsburg, Lewis Co., New York. She was born in Hollingsworth (note by Mrs. Gregg that she thinks this was Killingworth) Middlesex Co., Conn." Mrs. Gregg continued: "In 1901 my grandmother went on a trip by train from Chicago, where we lived, to New York State to look up her family and here is some of what she wrote back to my mother, 'Lacore Family - Sarah Mullin said her grandfather was Nathaniel Lackore and that her great grandfather lived with her grandfather until he died. They lived at Pierre Pont Manor (where Sarah's grandparents Weaver died - Mrs. Gregg's note). Then they moved to Champion, N. Y. (Mrs. Gregg's grandmother's note - I think it is called Champion Hill) John Mullins said that his great grandfather Lackore's family lived in Herkimer Co., N. Y.' It was either during this visit to N. Y. or just after her return home that she wrote the notebook." (*Author's note - these three names of brothers are not correct. Lemuel was a brother but he married Rizpah Hurlbut (see later). I believe these three brothers of Martha (Lackore) Gillet and of Lemuel Lucore, were Nathaniel, William and James (see later). )

[5] Census, 1830, N. Y., Jefferson Co., Champion, 145.

Lemuel Lucore's name appears in deed records in Murrayfield. The first time he is mentioned:[6]

> "John Lackore of Murrayfield . . . sells to my son Lemuel Lackore of Murrayfield . . . a certain tract . . . of Land Lying . . . in the town of Murrayfield . . . containing fifty acres . . . one half of Lot No. 25 and lyeth northerly of the Meeting House . . . 18 September 1771; registered, 30 July 1789."

He is the grantee in the next:[7]

> "Lemuel Lackor of Murrayfield, Yeoman . . . sells to John Lackor of Murrayfield, Yeoman . . . a certain tract of land lying . . . in Town of Murrayfield . . . contains seven acres and forty nine rods out of Lot No. twenty five . . . signed 16 August 1777; registered 27 August 1779."

Probably as he is getting ready to move to Westfield, he sells the following:[8]

> "Lemuel Lackor of Murrayfield, . . . yeoman, sells to Solomon Root Junr. of Westfield, yeoman . . . A certain Piece of Land in said Murrayfield Containing fifty acres being the farm I now Dwell on being the Northerly half of Lot No. 25 . . . westerly to the Highway to Land of Rosannah Tillotson . . . 16 Oct., 1779; registered 30 July, 1789."

The valuation list taken in Murrayfield and returned 19 April 1768:[8]

> "Lemuel Laccore—1 poll—and Total (value) £, s-0"

The 1770 list includes him, by property qualifications, as eligible to vote.[9]

In September, 1773, the Murrayfield valuation has:

> "Lemuel Laccore with one poll, £21.12s real estate; £3.13s personal; and total £25.05s."[10]

The November 15, 1782 listing for Murrayfield does not have

Lemuel Laccore. His father and brother, John Jr. are included, however. [11]

Lemuel's service in the Revolution is shown: [12]

"Lemuel Lackore-Murrayfield (Chester) Private Capt. Enoch Shepard's Co. Col. John Moseley's regt, Marched from home Oct. 21, 1776; service to Nov. 17, 1776—28 days; company marched to Mt. Lemuel Lucore married Editha Eggleston and is shown:

"1770, July 12th—Was at Nathaniel Eggleston's, dined their and Married his daughter to Lemuel Lucker of Murrayfield, received 6/-($1.00) Sharp lightning and Thunder, seasonable Showers."

This is from the Reverend John Ballantine's Journal. [13]

Editha Eggleston's family is shown: [14]

[15] Descendants of Lemuel and Editha have been established and are the basis for a genealogy now in preparation. These families migrated to Pennsylvania, Iowa, Illinois, and farther west. Contact has been made, directly or indirectly, with descendants of all of these children except the possible son, James. Mrs. Onalee (Paul) Arnold, R. R. 3, Marion, Iowa 52302, from Lemuel (Jr), has (1969) family Bibles and other documents and is gathering the bulk of this material. I have received copies of letters sixty to eighty-five years old. In the absence of birth and other official records for proof these letters will be excerpted in this chapter as evidence of relationships. As will be shown, we think three sons, Nathaniel, William and James, were born, probably in Westfield, and their births not recorded. I have just been in Westfield checking available records in the Athenaeum and found nothing.

ii. Lemuel Lucore (as this branch spelled the name) was born 8 November 1772, Murrayfield, Mass.[16, 17] He died 3 January 1816, aged 44, at Williamsburg, Mass.[19] or 7 December 1816.[19]

"Lemuel Lackore, Jr. of Westfield, mar. pub. 22 Oct. 1796 at Southampton Rizpah Hurlburt of Southampton mar. certificate issued 26 Nov. 1796 (Westfield C-201)"[18] Rizpah Hurlbut was born 5 November 1775, Montgomery, Mass.,[20] daughter of Stephen and Mary (Lester) Hurlbut[21, 22] Rizpah (Hurlbut) Lucore died 9 May 1852, Marion, Linn Co., Iowa,[22] and is buried in Oakshade Cemetery, Pioneer Lot, Marion, Iowa.[22] About 1816, Lemuel Lucore (Jr.), the oldest child of this family, went to McKean County, Pa.,[22] and the 1820 census[22] shows him there with, it is presumed, his widowed mother and brothers and sisters. About 1840 or 1841, Rufus Hurlbut Lucore, another son, returned to Pennsylvania, after having been in Marion, Linn Co., Iowa, and took his widowed mother, Rizpah, back to Iowa on horseback.[22]

On page 414 of the original appears marriage of Samuel Clap Jr. and Editha Lucore and on page 416, that of Chester Clap and Margaret Luckore. Genealogical Notes by Louis Marinus Dewey shows the marriage publications of Edatha, Margaret and Lemuel (Jr.) and the latter's marriage. This typescript is also in the Westfield Athenaeum, Westfield, Mass. See Chapter I, note 4. Harlan F. [19] Mrs. Onalee (Paul) Arnold (see note 15) received the following in January 1968, from Atherton Parsons, Pomeroy Meadow Road, Southampton, Mass. 01073: "Recently a tattered notebook was found at our library supposedly giving the dates of death of people in Southampton in the early 1800's. One entry—while indistinct—appeared to be the death of Lemuel Lackore December 7, 1816." In 1967 Mrs. Arnold heard from Southampton Congregational Church: "Lemuel Lackore died at Williamsburg 3 January 1816 ae 44." The Court House, Northampton, Mass., has dower rights, 7 April 1817, wife Rizpah Lackore, in Lemuel's estate; and Box 86, No. 1, Administration Bond, 4 March 1817.

iii. Margaret Lackore was born 31 August 1775 in Murrayfield, Mass.[16, 17] No record has been found for when or where she died or her burial place. She married 5 January 1797 in the Westfield Congregational Church Chester Clapp, of Southampton.[18] Their marriage intention was published 9 October 1796 at Southampton.[18] Harlan F. Torrey[18] stated, in 1965, that Chester Clapp was the son of Elijah and Submit (Clark) Clapp of Southampton. He had corresponded with descendants of this branch, also.

iv. John Lackore was born 9 October 1777, Murrayfield, Mass.[16, 17] Thus far there has been no proof found to connect this John Lackore with the information obtained about a John Lucore who located in West Springfield, Hampshire Co., Mass. I believe Lemuel Lackore (born 1745) and his brother, John Lackor (born 1749) were the only two male children of John and Margaret (Crawford) Lacore. No records of a brother have been found for John Lacore (born about 1706). John (born 1749) did have a son, John Allen Lackor, born 1783[16, 17] but he moved to Ontario County, N. Y., as will be noted later in this volume. By the process of elimination, I feel the following "John Lucore" records belong to this family.

John Lucore married 25 December 1800, West Springfield, Mass., Lucy Warriner of West Springfield.[23] I understand there is a book by Warren, Springfield Families, 2, 727, which indicates the estate of Martin Warriner, in 1820, who had a wife Sabra Hancock, lists daughter, Lucy, as the wife of John Lackore. So far I have not been able to see this book. West Springfield, Mass., Probate Records[24] show that John Lackore died in West Springfield in March 1824 and his son, John, was named administrator of his father's estate and the Widow Lucy Lackore petitioned the court for a widow's allowance. West Springfield records contain the births of the children of John and Lucy.[23] Contact has been made with some descendants from this family and many remained in the West Springfield and Williamsburg, Mass., area.

[24] Mrs. Gwen (Johnson) Raymond, McCammon, Idaho 83250, a descendant from Lemuel (Sr.) through his son, Nathaniel Lackore, has done a lot of research on the families. She sent this probate record in 1965.

v. Nathaniel Lackore was born 15 June 1780, Westfield, Hampshire Co., Mass.[25] He was married in Martinsburg, Lewis Co., N. Y.,[3, 25] to Sarah Weaver, who was born 10 February 1785, Killingworth, Middlesex Co., Conn.,[3, 25, 26] the daughter of Timothy and Sarah (Vaughan) Weaver.[25, 26] Nathaniel Lackore and his family are found in Champion Town, Jefferson Co., N. Y., in the 1820 and 1830 censuses.[4, 5] He died 14 September 1845 and his wife, Sarah, died 16 September 1845, both in Nauvoo, Hancock Co., Ill.[25]

vi. William Lackore. I have no birth date record for him. The 1820 census, Champion Town, Jefferson Co., N. Y.,[4] lists him in the twenty-six to forty-five age group, i. e. born between 1775 and 1794. He probably was born about 1781 to 1784, and possibly in Westfield, but there is no proof of this. He was married 1 May 1808 to Hannah Weaver.[27] She was probably born in Killingworth, Middlesex Co., Conn., 1 February 1787, the daughter of Timothy and Sarah (Vaughan) Weaver.[26] Both William Lackore and his wife Hannah (Weaver) Lackore were supposed to have died and been buried in Watertown, Jefferson Co., N. Y.,[28] but so far no

[25] Mrs. Gwen Raymond (see note 24) has, 1968, old family letters. One of these was from Cleantha (Dunshee) Barrett, born about 1840, daughter of Nancy (Lackore, Livingston) Dunshee (daughter of Nathaniel and Sarah (Weaver) Lackore) and second husband, William Dunshee. In 1884, Cleantha lived in Camanche, Clinton Co., Iowa, and her mother, who had lived with her over forty years, had just died. She listed these records in one of her letters:

"Nathaniel Lackore . . born Westfield Hampshire Co Mass. June 15th 1780: Sarah Weaver was born in Killingworth Middlesects Co Conn Feb 10 1785 married at Martinsburg Lewis Co N. Y. Nathaniel died Sept 14 1845 Sarah died Sept 16 1845 . . . Mother always spelt the name Lackore with the 'k'."

She also listed nine children with their birthdates, including Luke Lackore, Margaret Lackore and Jerusha Lackore. Another letter from her, 1883, included addresses: i.e. "Aunt Margaret's (Mullin) in Plainsville Rook Co, Kansas; Aunt Jerusha (Bridenbaugh) in Forrestville Sanilac Co Mich." Mrs. Raymond used this as a lead and located Henry and Jerusha Bridenbach in 1870, Mich. Twp. of Delaware, Co. of Sanilac, page 1, census. Mrs. Raymond has copies of Early Church Records in the Genealogical Library, Salt Lake City, Utah, that show Nathaniel listed his parents as Lemuel and Editha (Eggleston) Lackore when he joined the Mormon Church in 1836.

[26] Lucius E. Weaver, History and Genealogy of a Branch of the Weaver Family (Rochester, N. Y., 1928) 118, ". . . Timothy Weaver . . . lived in Rutland, Jefferson Co. N. Y., 26 June 1833 . . . He married . . . 1773 Sarah Vaughan . . following births recorded in Killingly (Conn.) without the names of parents—may be some of Timothy's children: Mary born 15 Nov. 1782, Sarah, born 9 Feb. 1785, Hannah, b. 1 Feb. 1787, Anna, born 8 May, 1788, Sabia (or perhaps Sabra), born 7 Dec. 1791." (See note 25—"Sarah Weaver born 10 Feb 1785").

[27] Mrs. Lena Beatrice (Hoffine, Stebbins) Tamlyn, 715 North Catherine Avenue, LaGrange Park, Ill. 60528. (She was born a 'Hoffine.' a Lackore descendant, being a granddaughter of Timothy Weaver Lackore [T. W.] (son of William Lackore), but since her mother died when she was young she was adopted by an aunt and uncle and her name changed to 'Stebbins.') had in her possession, 1965, a small Bible listing dates: "William Lackore married Hannah Weaver on May 1, 1808," and son's birthdate "Timothy W. Lackore 7 Sept. 1818" record has been found of either of their death dates or burials. As shown,[27] one of the children of William and Hannah (Weaver) Lackore was named Timothy Weaver Lackore (called T. W.), which further substantiates Timothy Weaver's having been Hannah's father.

vii. James Lackore. No contact has ever been made with this family and the only record found was the 1820 census in Rutland, Jefferson Co., N.Y.[28] He was living next to Timothy Weaver then, whose family (Timothy Weaver) consisted of a male and female both over forty-five.[28] This 1820 census is the only record ever located showing James' first name. Timothy Weaver, aged eighty to ninety, appears in Rutland in 1830[29] but I did not see any Lackore names.

There was a Sabra Weaver born 7 December 1791[26] who might have been a daughter of Timothy and Sarah (Vaughan) Weaver.[26] She could also have been the third Weaver sister[3] who married this third Lackore brother[3] (i. e. probably named James). There were two other Weaver girls listed,[26] Mary Weaver born 15 November 1782 and Anna Weaver born 8 May 1788, who might have been his wife. I am favoring the girl, Sabra, primarily because two of the children were supposedly named Joseph Lackore and Sabry Lackore.[27] This is very weak reasoning, but is presented here as a possibility. The 1820 census for James Lackore [28] indicates probable children as a son born between 1804 and 1810 and three daughters born between 1810 and 1820. Nothing at all further is known.

[27] In 1907 Mrs. Lizzie (Daniels) Lackore, widow of Horace L. Lackor of Minneapolis, Minn., wrote to various families, tracing the Lackor family. She gave copies of these letters to Jessie Harriet Lackor, a granddaughter of her husband's brother, James Ryan Lackor. She, in turn, sent these copies to me in 1965. Mrs. Jessie (Lackor) Peck lived in the Newfane Nursing Home, Newfane, N. Y., prior to her death on 17 January 1969. Edna Louise Lackore, the writer of the letters, was a daughter of Henry Delos Lackore, a son of Timothy Weaver Lackore [T. W.], a son of William Lackore and Hannah Weaver. In August and September 1907, Edna wrote from 2532 North Hamlin Avenue, Irving Park, Chicago, Ill., to Mrs. (Lizzie) Lackore . . . ". . . William Lackore and his wife Hannah Weaver both died in Watertown, N. Y. . . . William Lackore of Watertown (father of T. W.) had two brothers that she knows of but have not yet found their names. T. W. Lackore had five cousins belonging to two different families. Margaret Lackore who married a John Mullen and her sister Jerusha L(ackore) who married a Bridenbaugh from Michigan. Three others (cousins of T. W.) were Sabry Lackore, Joseph Lackore, and Luke Lackore. Lucy Lackore was a daughter of Luke, but I don't know her married name." (Author's note: 1880 Chicago, Ill., census, roll 200, 337-337R, family No. 508-549, has Luke Lackore, wife Lucy, and among children, was a widowed daughter, Lucy Stetson. This substantiates some of the above quoted letter.)

Author's explanation—T. W. Lackore was listed as a son of William Lackore and Hannah Weaver. Cleanthe Barrett's letters (note 25) showed that some of children of Nathaniel Lackore and Sarah Weaver were Luke, Margaret and Jerusha. Three of T. W.'s cousins (per above) were Margaret who married John Mullen, Jerusha (Lackore) Bridenbaugh and Luke with a daughter, Lucy. The remaining two of the five listed cousins of T. W. were Joseph Lackore and Sabry Lackore. These have never been located. By deduction, they would be children of the third Lackore brother and third Weaver sister (see also note 3).

[28] 1820, N. Y., Jefferson Co., Town of Rutland census, 470.

viii. Martha Lackore was born 17 April, 1785, Chester, Mass.; [30] baptized 4 September 1785, Chester, Mass., [17] and she died 21 February 1876,[30] Watervliet Twp., Berrien Co., Mich., buried Coloma Cemetery, Watervliet Twp., Mich. [30] Martha Lackore married 11 June 1807, Lowville, Lewis Co., N. Y., [30] Johiel (Jehiel) Gillet, who was born 13 July 1786 [30] and died 3 April 1867, [30] Watervliet Twp., Berrien Co., Mich., and was also buried in Coloma Cemetery there. [30]

This genealogy is not attempting to show the descendants from this Lemuel and Editha (Eggleston) Lucore (Lackore). As mentioned in note 15, a thorough study is being made of these families and a book is in preparation for future publication.

[30] Mrs. Clifford C. Gregg (see note 3), a descendant from Martha Lackore, sent in June 1965, family information including tombstone inscriptions which she had copied from the Coloma Cemetery. She also had then in her possession a copy from The National Archives, Washington, D. C., Record Group Number 15A, seven full pages of "Portions of Military Pension and Bounty Land File WC 6286, B. L. Wt. 77 127-120-55 of Jehiel Gillett, War of 1812," which also included birth dates of Martha Lackore and Johiel Gillet; their marriage date and place; death dates, and Martha's maiden name—Lockere-Lackore.

V—JOHN LACORE [LACKOR], JUNIOR[1]

4. JOHN LACORE [LACKOR] (John, John). He was born 27 February 1749, Pelham, Mass.,[2] and he died in the Town of Middlesex, Ontario Co. (now Yates), N. Y., and is buried in the French Cemetery, Potter, N. Y.[3] The inscription is:

"John Lackor died 24 Sept. 1808—aged 58"[3]

This graveyard was named for Jabez French and is about a mile south of Rushville.[4]

Undoubtedly, John Lackor, Jr. spent his boyhood with his family in Pelham, Mass., prior to their moving to the newly settled Murrayfield about 1766 to 1768. By this time he had nearly reached manhood. The first valuation list which has been preserved, i. e. 19 April 1768, in Murrayfield,[5] does not show a separate listing for John, Jr. His brother, Lemuel Laccore, has 1 poll and his father, John Laccore is listed with 2 polls.

The 25 August 1773 town meeting was called to seat the meeting-house.[6] It was voted that:

> "John Laccore, Jr. (among others) . . . shall have the fore-seat in the front gallery upon their raising the gallery stairs & building the seat."

[1] For the most part, later descendants of this branch used the spelling "Lackor," so I shall start using it with this "John Lackor." In all the Chester (Murrayfield) records of him I have seen, he is known as John Lacore [Lackor], Jr., to distinguish him from his father. For this reason I shall also keep the 'junior' part of his name.

[2] Pelham Vit. Rec.—this record of the births of children of John and Margaret Lucore is torn and only the "s" for son is indicated. As explained in Chapter III, 27, I feel this birth record refers to John.

[3] "D.A.R., N. Y., Volume 88, Cemetery Records" (Manuscript), New York State Library, Albany. "French Cemetery, Potter, N. Y."

[4] Correspondence in April, 1965, with Miss Mabel Blodgett, former Historian of Potter, Yates Co., N. Y. She wrote that this cemetery has many brambles and woodchuck holes and probably hasn't had a burial for fifty years. She also said that the first record book of the Congregational Church in Rushville, Yates Co., N. Y., has been lost. And also, that "Rushville Village is mostly in the Town of Potter, which was originally part of Augusta. Most of Rushville is in Yates County but the north section is in Ontario County. Middlesex is southwest of Rushville."

[5] History of Murrayfield, 56-57.

[6] Ibid., 84-85.

This year, 1773, in September, when the valuation list was taken: [7]

> "John Laccore, Jr. had one poll" and his father and brother, Lemuel, each had one.

Right after this date there are records of John Lackor, Jr.'s marriage intention and marriage: [8, 9]

> "John Laccore mar. int. 15 Oct 1773 Sarah Smith and marriage 11 Nov. C.R.I"

Various deeds show John Lackor Jun[r] as both the grantee and grantor, viz:

> "Larkin Williams of Murrayfield . . gentleman, sells to John Lackore Jun[r] of said Murrayfield, yeoman . . . A Certain lot of land lying and being in the Town of Murrayfield containing one hundred acres . . . in said Lot being number one hundred and five . . . signed 21 April 1778 and registered 27 August 1779." [10]

The valuation list dated 15 November 1782 was the last taken under the name of Murrayfield and has: [11]

> "John Laccore, Jr. with 1 poll; £0.12s.2d;—real; £.15s.11d—personal; and £1.8s.1d—total."

His father, John Laccore, is on the list, with 0 polls, but his brother, Lemuel, is not included.

The next deed has: [12]

> "John Lackore Junr of Chester . . . Yeoman . . . sells to William Campbell gentleman of Chester . . . A Certain Parcel of Land in sd Chester being the Northerly part of Lot No. 105 in first division containing Ten acres . . . signed 9 November 1786 and registered 15 August 1788."

Land owned by "John Lackor Junr" as being "bounded on the East" is used in a description of a deed from John Lackor of Chester, yeoman, to John Hamilton containing forty-two acres and part of Lot Number 103 dated 25 February 1788 and registered 2 September 1788.[13]

Another conveyance shows:[14]

"John Lackor Junr of Chester . . . yeoman . . . sells to Ebenezer Slayton of Chester . . . one certain Piece of Land in said Chester containing fifty acres . . . running south bounding upon said (John) Elder and John Lackor to the first mentioned Corner . . . signed 29 October 1788; registered 11 April 1789." This was signed by John Lackor Jun and Sarah Lackor.

John Lackor, Jr., is listed twice in the Revolutionary War records—under the spelling of Lackore and again, under Lucore, viz:

"John Lucore, Murrayfield (Chester) private Capt John Ferguson's Co. of Minutemen, Col. Timothy Danielson's regt, which marched Apr 20, 1775, in response to the alarm of April 19, 1775, service 20 days."[15]

The second time:[16]

"John Lackore—Private, Capt. Enoch Shepard's Co., Col. John Mosley's regt. enlisted Sept. 21 1777; service 14 d on expedition to Saratoga. Reported as having left camp without leave Oct 4, 1777. Roll sworn to at Westfield."

Like his father before him, John Lackor, Jr., must have been of an adventurous nature. His father had twice moved to a town just as it was being formed, i. e. Pelham and Murrayfield. John Lackor, Jr., probably heard about the great opportunities over in New York and decided to move his family over there. He may have been one of those who went during the winter months when the sleds could travel over the snow covered fields. I don't know exactly which year he did go, but it was undoubtedly sometime between 1796 and 1800. His daughter, Sally Lackor, married in 1796 in Chester, Mass.[9] to Selden Williams. The Selden Williams family lived next to or near the Lackors in Ontario County, N. Y., for several years, so it is more than likely that they travelled together. Augusta Township, in Ontario County, N. Y., was first created [17] in 1797 and in 1808 it was changed to the Town of Middlesex, and at times known as Potterstown. [17] Potter and Rushville are other names for the area. In 1823, Yates County was formed from this section of Ontario County so what started out as Augusta, Ontario Co., N. Y., became Middlesex, Yates Co., N. Y. The Lackor and Williams families may have settled when the township was first created, i. e. about 1797. They both appear on the 1800 [18] Augusta Twp., Ontario Co., N. Y., census. The name was spelled Lucour and the suffix, Junior, was no longer used.

John's wife was on the list of the first members of the Congregational Church at Rushville, Ontario Co., N. Y., which was organized 28 November 1802 by the Reverend Jedediah Chapman, a missionary of the Presbyterian Church, as: [19]

"Sarah Lukore"

This is the only record I have found of her in Ontario or Yates Counties, N.Y. I have never located her death date or place or burial place. She might have remarried after her husband died, but I have not seen a record of that either. Since the first record book for the Congregational Church in Rushville has been lost for years, [3] I can't expect to find anything from that source.

There are no probate records or deeds for John Lackor or his wife in Ontario or Yates Counties.

VI—THE FAMILY OF JOHN LACKOR, JUNIOR

It was shown in Chapter V, 46, that John Lackor, Jr., married 11 November 1773, Murrayfield, Sarah Smith.

Unfortunately, I have never been successful in proving the parentage of Sarah Smith. I do have fairly conclusive evidence toward a possibility, which is given here.

> "Timothy Smith came from Wallingford, Conn., and on the 5th of October 1763 he received from the proprietors a deed of 500 acres of land . . ." [1, 2]

This land was in Murrayfield. Wallingford records showed: [3]

> "Among children of Daniel and Abigail (Alling) Smith was: Timothy Smith, born 15 June 1719 NHV (New Haven vital records) mar. 3 Sept. 1740 WV (Wallingford vital records) Margaret dau Thomas and Mary (——) Curtis, b. 8 May 1721 WV."

When Timothy Smith took his family to Murrayfield in 1763, his daughter, Sarah, born 1754, would have been too young not to have gone with them and she would have been the right age to marry in 1773. There are no probate records for Timothy Smith which would list his children nor, as I said in Chapter V, 51, have I been able to find a gravestone record for Sarah (Smith) Lackor, indicating her age.

Another item should be added here. It will be shown later in this chapter that a very likely child of John and Sarah (Smith) Lackor, Jr. was Timothy Smith Lackor. There is no printed record of his birth, but the Clerk of the First Congregational Church in Chester [4] did locate for me the baptism of a child, "Timothy Smith Lackor," with no parents' names given. The 1820 census in Middlesex, Ontario Co., N. Y.,[5] lists him as "Timothy Lacore." About 1823 he moved up to Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., to work on the Erie Canal and from then on was always known as "Smith Lackor." Two granddaughters of Smith Lackor had notations,[6, 7] still preserved, to the effect that this Smith Lackor was the son of John Lackor, so I believe he was their son. It is very likely that they would name a child for the father of the mother—hence Timothy Smith Lackor.

For these reasons, I feel almost certain that Sarah Smith, wife of John Lackor, Jr., was the same as the Sarah Smith, born 30 Jan. 1754[8] in Wallingford, Conn., the daughter of Timothy and Margaret (Curtis) Smith. But, as I said, there is no real proof.

The Children of John and Sarah (Smith) Lackor, Jr.:[6, 8, 9, 10]

i. Sally Lackor was born 18 February 1774, Murrayfield, Mass.[8, 9] She was married 3 March 1796, Chester, Mass.[9] to Selden Williams, of Adams, with the intention in Windsor.[11] As shown in the preceding chapter, sometime after their marriage and prior to 1800, she and her husband, probably in company with her parents' family, moved over to New York State in Ontario County. This section is now called Yates County. The township was first known as Augusta, and later

[6] Mrs. Jessie (Lackor) Peck, Newfane, N. Y., a great granddaughter of Smith Lackor, had obtained information from her uncle's widow, Lizzie (Daniels) Lackore, widow of Horace L. Lackor, about 1907. The latter had done a lot of family research and gave her the material then. This included information about brothers and sisters of Timothy Smith Lackor. Another aunt of Mrs. Peck's was Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh, who also gave her dates and information about this branch, including the notation of Smith Lackor's father's name. Mrs. Peck sent me these notes in 1965.

[7] Mary (LaRue) McCall, granddaughter of Smith Lackor, had made several notations of this family, including Smith's father's name, John. These are all now in my possession.

changed to Middlesex (See Chapter V, note 17). Her death is recorded there: [12]

"Sally, wife of Selden Williams—February 24, 1824—49 yr."

Sally was shown as the teacher in the first school: [13]

"The first school (in Rushville) was taught by Mrs. Selden Williams in a little building near the residence of Nathl Loomis."

Selden Williams was active in town affairs. The list of qualified jurors in the town of Augusta, 1800, included the name of Selden Williams. [14] He was also a Supervisor for the Town of Middlesex, 1824-1827, and he represented Middlesex on the First Board of Supervisors after Yates County was organized. [15]

In 1966, Yates County Surrogate Court stated there were no probate records for Sally Williams (nee Lackor) or Selden Williams.

They may have had some children, as indicated in various censuses. There were no children under ten in the 1800 census [16] This was in Augusta. Subsequent ones were all in Middlesex; 1810 [17]; 1820 [6] and 1825. [18] These did show younger children, but since I am not attempting to trace the Williams family, I have not followed them up.

ii. Cynthia Lackor was born 18 August 1775, Murrayfield, Mass. [8, 9] (duplicate date has 16 August). [9] She was baptized in the First Congregational Church, Chester, on 25 August 1775. [4] Her marriage intention is shown: [9]

"Cynthia Lackore intention 12 June, 1793, Chester, to David Sanderson of Conway."

David Sanderson was born 30 March, 1771, in Deerfield, Mass.[19] and was the son of James and Sarah (Parker) Sanderson. The marriage of his parents is shown:[20]

> "James Saunders mar. 19 Dec. 1770, Deerfield, Sarah Parker, int. not recorded."

They were also the parents of James Sanderson, Jr. who married Roxana Lackor, sister of Cynthia; and Sally Sanderson who married John Stebbins, parents of Emily Stebbins, who married Timothy Smith Lackor, brother of Cynthia.

There is a record of marriage in Worthington, Mass.[21] of David Sanderson of Conway, 8 October 1791 to Sally Mixtur. It is quite likely she was his first wife, but so far I have not located her death record.

The published volume of Chester Vital Records[9] under "deaths":

> "Lackor, Sanderson, inf. grandchild John, 13 Oct. 1793 CR 1"

The Clerk of the First Congregational Church in Chester[4] checked the records for me and wrote:

> "death October 13, 1793—records state a grandchild of John Lackor, whose name was Sanderson."

This is quite different from Sanderson Lackor. Since Cynthia was the only daughter married to a Sanderson at that time I think it is fairly safe to assume that this grandchild referred to one of David and Cynthia (Lackor) Sanderson's.

Some records have been located for a David Sanderson family living in Phelps, Ontario Co., N. Y., and later for a David and Cynthia Sanderson family in Barre, Orleans Co., N. Y. There is no proof to connect them with this branch, but because of the possible connection, I shall list some now.

David Sanderson appears in Phelps, Ontario Co., N. Y.

in the 1810,[22] 1820,[23] and 1830[24] censuses. In 1850, I found this record in Barre, Orleans Co., N. Y.[25]

"David Sanderson—80, blacksmith, b. Mass.
Cynthia—77, b. Mass., living next to Stillman Sanderson family."

In 1855 in Barre, Orleans Co., N. Y.,[26] Stillman Sanderson, aged 51, born Massachusetts, and family, has with him:

"Cynthia Sanderson—81, mother, widow, born Massachusetts, and living in town 15 years"

This would indicate she moved there in 1840. Cemetery records for burials in the Snyder Cemetery in Barre, N. Y.[27]

"Sanderson, David S. d. 17 June, 1854, ae 84 Cynthia, his wife d. (8) -12-1859 ae 86" and other names, including that of Stillman Sanderson.

In June, 1967, I contacted the Clerk of the Surrogate Court, Orleans Co., N. Y. and he indicated there were no estates for any of the Sanderson names I was checking on.

A death record for William Harrison Sanderson[28] who died 30 June 1892, aged 79 years 6 months, has parentage listed as David and Scyntha Sanderson. The 1855 census[26] for District 3 Barre shows William H. Sanderson, aged 42, born in Ontario Co., N. Y., blacksmith, and 23 years in town. This seems to show that his parents were living in Ontario County, N. Y. in 1813, and helps to corroborate the fact that the earlier records in Phelps, Ontario Co., N. Y. belong to this same family.

It is not my intention to trace these Sanderson descendants of the Lackor family, however, so I shall not continue with the Orleans County Sanderson records.

iii. Roxana Lackor was born 15 September 1777, Murrayfield, Mass.[8, 9] and she was baptized 30 November 1777, in the First Congregational Church, Chester.[4] Her marriage intention is given:[19]

> "Roxena Lacore and James Sanderson Jr., 4 July 1798, both of Conway, intention, Conway."

They were married in Windsor:[11]

> "Roxena Lucore of Conway and James Sanderson of Conway, mar. 12 Aug. 1798" (This church record shows James Jr. of Conway)—intention not recorded.

James Sanderson Jr. was born 11 April 1777, in Conway, son of James and Sarah (Parker) Sanderson.[19] They also were the parents of David Sanderson who married Cynthia Lackor, sister of Roxana, and of Sally Sanderson who married John Stebbins, parents of Emily Stebbins who married Timothy Smith Lackor, brother of Roxana. There is a list of the children of James and Sarah (Parker) Sanderson which includes David, Sallie and James Jr.[29]

One child of James Sanderson Jr. is listed in Conway.[19]

> "Sanderson, child of James Jr. dysentary, died September 13, 1803 age 4."

I have not successfully followed this family. There are two records I have seen which might indicate their location—obviously both records could not pertain to this family, though. In 1840, Town of Barre, Orleans Co., N. Y.[30] appears a James Sanderson aged sixty to seventy; i. e. born about 1770 to 1780, a female aged fifty to sixty and a female aged five to ten.

The Surrogate Court Clerk of Orleans Co., N. Y. replied in 1967 saying there were no estates there for James Sanderson.

The other possible record appears in Rutland, Mass.[31]

> "James Sanderson died 14 Sept 1837 aged 58, Rutland," i.e. born about 1779.

As I mentioned with other families, I am not attempting to trace these Sandersons, so shall not speculate further on where they went.

iv. Phebe Lackor was born 15 September 1780, Murrayfield, Mass.[8, 9] There is a record under Chester "deaths":[9]

"Lackor, infant of Phebe, 18 July, 1802, aged about 2 or 3 weeks, CR I"

This might mean that she had remained in the area of Chester after her parents moved to Ontario Co., N. Y. There is no further record.

"Daughter of John Lackor and wife, baptized 8 March 1785, First Congregational Church, Chester."[4, 9]

It is possible this baptism refers to Phebe, but I am not sure.

5. v. John Allen Lackor was born 8 April 1783, in Murrayfield, Mass.[8, 9] The Chester records[9] indicated the date is written 1733, with a duplicate date of 1783. Undoubtedly the latter is correct. John Allen Lackor is one of the two children of the wife of John Lackor who were baptized 8 March 1785.[4, 9]

vi. Anna Lackor was born 21 November 1785[8] and was baptized 18 October 1786[4, 9] at the First Congregational Church, Chester. There is no further record of her. In the 1800 census[10] for John Lucour family in Augusta, Ontario Co., N. Y., there is a female aged ten to sixteen, who could be this daughter, Anna.

6. vii. Renssellaer Lackor was born 8 April 1788,[8] Chester, Mass. and was baptized 5 December 1788[4, 9] in the First Congregational Church in Chester.

7. viii. Timothy Smith Lackor was born 25 January 1791,[4] 1792[32] or 22 January 1792,[32] Chester, Mass. The two years are mentioned since the baptismal record in the First Congregational Church, Chester,[4] Mass., very distinctly indicates 8 May 1791. The Clerk checked the year twice for me and I saw the records too. This baptismal record does not list his parents however; merely the child's name. Earlier, I have given reasons for believing that Timothy Smith Lackor belongs in this family. In Chapter IX, they will be covered in greater detail.

ix. Arvid Lewis Lackor was baptized 2 September 1795 [4, 9] at the First Congregational Church in Chester, Mass. The town records do not include him [4] nor does the History of Murrayfield. [8] The Chester records [9] have listed the church baptismal record.

Not much is known about this son. According to family information, [6] Lewis Lackor (as he was known) went to Kentucky. This information was given to Jessie (Lackor) Peck by her aunt, Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh in 1907. [6]

There is only one record that I have ever located for a Lewis Lacore, who might be this person. It is a deed: [33]

> "26 March 1818 between John Warner of Phelps, Ontario Co., first part and Abraham Crawford and Lewis Lacore of same place of second part . . . for certain tract of land situate in Town of Phelps . . . part of lot number seventy three in township No. ten in first range of towns in County of Ontario . . . containing two acres two roods and twenty three perches . . . recorded 28 April 1818."

VII—JOHN ALLEN LACKOR—FOURTH GENERATION

5. JOHN ALLEN LACKOR (John, John, John) was born 8 April 1783, Murrayfield, Mass.[1, 2] He was one of the two children of the wife of John Lackor Jr. who was baptized 8 March 1785 in the First Congregational Church, Chester.[2, 3]

He died intestate and Letters of Administration were issued on the estate of John A. Lackor of Ontario Co., N. Y., 15 August 1815 and granted to Margaret Lackor, relict, and Enoch Bardwell, friend of "sd John A. Lackor, decd." Seal 17 August 1815.[4, 5] According to a family record[6] John Allen Lackor had been a captain in the War of 1812, but I have not found any official record of this.[7, 8]

John Allen Lackor probably married about 1810 Margaret ——— [Peggy].[4, 5, 6] The 1810 census for Middlesex[9] lists him as:

"Jno. A. Lakuor" with one male and one female, each aged twenty-six to forty-five, living two away from Selden Williams.

After his death, his widow married James Ryan[6] who was a good friend of Timothy Smith Lackor, brother of John Allen Lackor. One of Timothy Smith Lackor's sons was named

She told of the second marriage of John Allen Lackor's widow, Peggy, to James Ryan, for whom her (Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh) father was named. She also told of the supposed service of John Allen Lackor in the War of 1812.

James Ryan Lackor for this man. The only records I could find and which might belong to this Ryan family were: [10] An inscription in the Dillon Cemetery, Hopewell Twp., Ontario Co., N. Y.—

"James Ryan died 10 December 1824 aged 46"

The other record [11] appeared in the 1810 census for Farmington, Ontario Co., N. Y., with a Jas. Ryons, aged twenty-six to forty-five.

John A. Lackor is the grantee in only one deed recorded in either Yates or Ontario County, viz: [12]

"John A. Lackor of Augusta, Ontario Co., N. Y., first part, and Abeal Thomas, same place . . . sells land lying in town of Augusta, fifty acres, to be taken from east end of the west lot or half of farm number 11 in 4th range of farms . . . signed 18 April 1807 and he appeared 6 November 1807."

Since no wife joined him in this sale, I presume he wasn't married then.

Someone named "John A. Lackor" purchased, in 1807, property in Twp. 2 of the Triangle, part of the Morris Reserve. [13] The Triangle was a tract

"which had its base upon Lake Ontario and terminated in a sharp point, a little south of LeRoy Village." [13]

There is no proof that these two John A. Lackors are the same.

VIII—RENSSELLAER LACKOR—

FOURTH GENERATION

6. RENSSELLAER LACKOR (John, John, John) was born 8 April 1788[1, 2] and was baptized 5 December 1788[3] in the First Congregational Church, Chester, Mass.[2, 3]

So far I have not located a death record for him, either the date or place, or burial place. He is shown as late as 4 June 1836[4] in Niagara Co., N. Y., when he and his wife sell fifty-eight and one half acres. In 1850 his wife, Phebe, was living with her married daughter's family, Mrs. Sabra (Lackor) Morse, in Wilson, Niagara Co., N. Y.[5] Presumably her husband, Renssellaer Lackor, had died before then.

He probably grew up in Middlesex, Ontario Co. (now Yates), N. Y. In 1818 he and his wife are referred to as "of[6] Middlesex" Ontario Co., N. Y., in a deed there. In fact, there are four deed transactions from 30 May 1815 through 23 December 1818 involving sales of his property, Lot Number 15.[6]

There are censuses[7, 8] indicating that his daughter was born in Canada about 1821 to 1823. This seems to show that after his property was sold in Middlesex, Ontario Co., N. Y., he might have lived for a few years in Canada. By 1830 he is living in Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[9] and he bought fifty-eight and one half acres of land in Niagara County, Lots 5, 7, 9 in Section 6, Township 14, from the Holland Land Company on 20 February 1834.[10] This is the property he sold 4 June 1836.[4] His son, Addison Lackor, moved to Bronson Twp., Branch Co., Mich., about 1836, as will be shown in a later chapter about him. It is possible that Renssellaer went out there with him and he might even have died there and his widow returned to NewYork State. In any case, there is no further record of where he lived.

Renssellaer Lackor probably married about 1810 and most likely, in Ontario Co., N. Y. (now Yates Co.), Phebe Salisbury.[11] She was born about 1788 in New York[5, 12] and died sometime after June 1860,[12] probably in Yates Co., N. Y., since she was living with her sister, Margaret (Salisbury) Sawyer in Middlesex, Yates Co., N. Y., in 1855 and 1860.[11, 12, 13] Phebe was listed as a relative living in the household of Cornet and Margaret Sawyer in 1855.[13] Phebe Salisbury was the daughter of Gideon, from Susquehanna River, Penna., and Elizabeth (Shields) Salisbury.[11]

Known Children of Renssellaer and Phebe (Salisbury) Lackor:[14]

9. i. Addison Lackor was born about 1810 to 1812, New York,[15, 16] probably in Middlesex, Ontario Co.[6]

ii. Fred Lackor was probably born between 1810 and 1815[9] since the 1830 census shows two males aged fifteen to twenty. There is no proof this child refers to Fred, though. This name was given in the list of names of children.[14] There is no further record of him.

iii. Sabra J. Lackor was born 22 November 1824,[17] Ancaster, Canada West.[7, 8, 17] She died Friday, 15 March 1889[17] at her residence on Maple Street, Wilson, Niagara Co., N. Y.[17] The city, county and state offices have no record of her death and no cemetery record has yet been located for her. She had lived on their farm in Wilson, Niagara Co., N. Y., since her marriage,[17] and was a member of the Universalist Church.[17] She was an invalid for several years before she died.[17]

Sabra J. Lackor was married 11 May 1848 to James M. Morse.[17, 18] He was born about 18 December 1816[19] in New York City,[18] the son of Noah[20] (a native of England[18]) and Sally (Williams)[19, 20] Morse. He died 4 December 1907,[19] Wilson, Niagara Co., N. Y.[19] aged ninety years, eleven months, seventeen days,[19, 21] and is buried in Lot C 57, Greenwood Cemetery, Wilson, N. Y.[21]

James M. Morse was married second 23 September 1889[20] at Maple Street, Niagara, N. Y., by Reverend G. W. Powell, to Estella (Arnold), ———.[21, 4] This was her second marriage too,[20] but her first husband's name is not known. When she died she left a daughter, Mrs. Clara B. Hall of Maple Street, Wilson, N. Y.[22] Clara B. was undoubtedly a child by her first husband. Estella Arnold was born 18 October 1845, Gorham, N. Y., and was the daughter of Alexander and Samantha (Salisbury) Arnold.[20, 23] She died 28 November 1920, Wilson, Niagara Co., N. Y.,[23] and is also buried in Lot C 57, Greenwood Cemetery, Wilson, N. Y.[21, 22] She was a member of the Wilson Methodist Episcopal Church.[22] Samantha (Salisbury) Arnold was a sister of Phebe (Salisbury) Lackor.[11] Hence Estella (Arnold, ———) Morse and Sabra (Lackor) Morse were cousins.

Since these children are listed only in the 1860 [24] census and not the 1865 [25] census, it might indicate they died young. The 1855 state census for Wilson, which would probably answer this, has been missing for years, according to Mrs. Julia Hull Winner. [26]

IX—TIMOTHY SMITH LACKOR [SMITH LACKOR] [1]

FOURTH GENERATION

7. TIMOTHY SMITH LACKOR [SMITH LACKOR] (John, John, John) [1] was born 25 January 1791, [2] 1792 [3] or 22 January 1792,[4] and was baptized, with no parents listed, in the First Congregational Church, Chester, Mass., on 8 May 1791. [2] All census records show his age as the 1792 birth year, so apparently that is the year he used. The published volume of Chester Vital Records does NOT include even the record that is in the church records. [5]

An explanation [6] is necessary now for my theory.

[1] After he settled in Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., about 1823, he was always known as "Smith" Lackor, so this is the name I shall use.

[2] March 1965 correspondence, Mrs. Grace B. Oppenheimer, Clerk, First Congregational Church, Skyline Trail, Chester, Mass. who found this baptismal record for me. She recently showed me the original and it appears on page 38 in chronological order under baptisms in the year 1791 as: "May 8—bapty'd Timothy Smith Lackor."

[3] Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.—inscriptions copied about 1940 by my father, Howard LaRue McCall, and in 1967, by Mrs. Julia Hull Winner, Gasport, N. Y., a historian.

[4] My aunt, Blanche (McCall) Tracy (1941), obtained a certified typewrittten affidavit (I now have) from her cousin, Winifred (Comstock) Selby. My grandmother, Mary (LaRue) McCall, often referred to "Winnie's Bible." This affidavit, quoted below, obviously is copied from this Bible. No trace has been found of this Bible and, therefore, this affidavit is an important substitute. I doubt the events were written as they occurred. The first three children's birthplace (born 1817 to 1822) is listed as Middlesex, Yates Co., N. Y., and yet Yates County was not formed until 1823. The following is a copy of a typewritten affidavit signed 7 March 1941 by Winifred M. Selby of the Village of Leland, County of Leelanau, State of Michigan:

". . . she is the great grand daughter of one Smith Lackor, has in her possession and is the custodian, of the said Smith Lackor's family Bible, and that the following is a correct copy of the several matters therein on record; to-wit:

[5] Chester Vit. Rec.

[6] With the lack of any official proof connecting this Timothy Smith Lackor to this Lackor family, I shall summarize my reasons for believing he belongs. Neither John Lackor Jr. nor his wife left probate records and the church record does not list parentage. The Church Clerk,[2] Mrs. Oppenheimer, checked the original Chester Town Records for me and no record is in them.

After settling in Niagara County, New York, he was always known on official and unofficial records as Smith Lackor.[1]

Family records indicated that his name was really Timothy Smith Lackor.[7]

Smith Lackor was living in Middlesex, Ontario Co., N. Y., in 1820 (still using the name Timothy).[8] About 1823 he moved to Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., where he had a contract for building a section of the Erie Canal. Family notes[7, 9, 10] and other items show this, as well as the obituary of Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh from The Courier-Express (Lockport, N. Y.), December 5 (1937):

> ". . . Her grandfather, Smith Lackor, a pioneer resident, contracted to build the Erie Barge Canal between Orangeport and Gasport and later erected the original Cottage Hotel in Chestnut Ridge, which operated as a stage coach tavern in the early canal days."

Smith Lackor's wife was Emily Stebbins, daughter of John and Sarah (Sanderson) Stebbins. Two of Sarah Sanderson's brothers—James Jr. and David—married older daughters of John Lackor Jr., viz. Roxana and Cynthia (Chapter VI). Hence, a family relationship.

There is the obvious connection between the name Timothy Smith Lackor and that of Sarah Smith, and as shown in Chapter VI, I believe Sarah Smith's father was Timothy Smith.

Smith Lackor was born in Massachusetts, as shown in the Bible record[4] and several censuses. In the 1790 census, Massachusetts, there was only one John Lucore (or similar name) besides the Locar families in Sudbury. John Lucore was listed in Chester. Pencilled notes, which I have, were handed down from two branches of this family—i.e. granddaughters of Smith Lackor: Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh and Mary (LaRue) McCall—and both noted that Smith Lackor's father's name was 'John.'

John Lackor Jr. and his family moved to Middlesex, Ontario Co., N. Y., before 1800. The oldest daughter, Sally Lackor, had married Selden Williams in 1796 and they also lived next to John Lackor in the 1800 census listing. In 1820 the census shows Selden Williams living three ____ away from a "Timothy Lacore." The Bible affidavit[4] shows that the first three of Smith Lackor's children were born in Middlesex, Yates County, and Louisa M. and Selden also show their birthplace on censuses as Yates.

The 1855 state census, Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., of Smith Lackor's family lists a niece, Melvina Lackor, 21, with them. As will be seen in Chapter XI she was the daughter of Addison Lacore, son of Rensselaer Lackor, Smith Lackor's brother. A similar relationship is shown in the obituary of Sophia (Lackor) LaRue, who was Smith Lackor's daughter. She died 20 February 1904, Empire Township, Mich., and among her surviving relatives is mentioned "Marvin LaCore . . of here . . cousin." He, too, was a son of Addison Lacore. See Chapter XI.

[7] Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh, a granddaughter of Smith Lackor, told her niece, Jessie (Lackor) Peck, of the Lackor families and gave her notes, including Timothy Smith Lackor's full name. In 1965, Jessie (Lackor) Peck sent these notes to me. She had them for sixty years.

[8] 1820 census, N. Y., Ontario Co., Middlesex, 70—Timothy Lacore.

[9] Lockport Daily Journal, 10 January 1912, obituary, James R. Lackor (son) which mentions his father's having been an early canal contractor.

[10] My grandmother, Mary (LaRue) McCall, another granddaughter, was brought up by her aunt, Louisa (Lackor) Anderson in Lockport, N. Y. For many years, Smith Lackor's widow, Emily (Stebbins) Lackor also lived there. Mary (LaRue) McCall gave me several notes and told me about the Lackor family. My father, Howard LaRue McCall, also had a great deal of knowledge about these families which he has told me.

Smith Lackor was the first owner of the property, purchased from the Holland Land Company,[11, 12] and of what is now (1969) an old tavern which has long been known as "The Cottage."[12]

> "Smith Lackor purchased from W. Willink et al (Holland Land Co.) 10 acres in Lot 5, Section 7, Twp. 14, Range 6, on 31 December 1829." This purchase included the property where the tavern is located.[10, 11]

The following deed pages record subsequent purchase of fifty-eight acres in Lot 6, Section 6, Twp. 14, Range 6. There are other deeds recorded for him that will not be listed here.

An early record of him in Niagara County was:[12]

> "The Premiums listed on 26 October 1842 for the Exhibition and Fair of the Niagara County Agricultural Society at the American Hotel, Lockport, gives an award for Best Pair of Working Horses to Smith Lucore."

The Products of Industry, Town of Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[10] for the year ending 1 June 1850 has:

"Smith Lackor—brick maker with one employee . . ." To substantiate this, Howard LaRue McCall recalls his mother Mary (LaRue) McCall's telling him of Smith Lackor's making bricks. At one time, in the 1950s, he used two of these bricks that Smith Lackor had made, in remodeling his home.

There is a deed record showing Smith Lackor as one of the original trustees[13] for the Chestnut Ridge Cemetery. This was described as:[14]

> ". . . pleasantly located on the east line of the town (Lockport); a portion of it lying in Royalton . . . An association was organized in the latter part of 1835 to which . . . Smith Lackor . . . were trustees. On January 5th 1836[14] they bought the grounds of Henry Lacy and they were laid out into lots."

Many of Smith Lackor's family were buried in this cemetery.[3]

Smith Lackor's will was written 9 April 1868[15] and names his living children and some grandchildren by deceased daughters. The will for his widow, Emily (Stebbins) Lackor, was written 29 November 1879.[16]

Smith Lackor died 10 April 1868[3, 17] in the Town of Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[17] and was buried in the Chestnut Ridge Cemetery.[3]

He had married, probably in June 1816,[18] Middlesex, Ontario Co., (now Yates) N. Y., Emily Stebbins.[19, 20] She was born 1 June 1796[3, 4, 21] in Conway, Mass.,[4, 21] daughter of John and Sarah (Sanderson) Stebbins.[20] As was shown in Chapter VI, Sarah (Sanderson) Stebbins (Emily's mother) was the sister of James Sanderson Jr. and David Sanderson who married, respectively, Roxana Lackor and Cynthia Lackor, older sisters of Smith Lackor.

Emily (Stebbins) Lackor moved from her farm in Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., after her husband's death, to Lockport, to live with her married daughter, Louisa (Lackor) Anderson.[18] She is shown there in the 1880 census.[22] Howard LaRue McCall was eight months old when his great grandmother died. His mother has told him that Emily (Stebbins) Lackor often said she would live to watch him walk, and she did; he took his first steps a few days before she died. At that time, the McCalls lived next to the Andersons on Caledonia Street, Lockport.[8]

Emily (Stebbins) Lackor died 24 November 1884[3, 18] at the Anderson home on Caledonia Street, Lockport, Niagara

The 1865 state census of Smith Lackor's family indicates[23] that Smith and Emily had each been married only once and that they were the parents of thirteen children. So far, records of only eleven children have been located, including the listing in the Bible affidavit.[4] As I wrote,[4] this Bible was undoubtedly written at a much later date and might not show one, or two, who may have died as infants, probably in Ontario County prior to their coming to Niagara County. No unaccounted for children were listed in the 1820 census.[8] They definitely are not included in Smith Lackor's will, so they must have died at some time prior to 1868. I have my grandmother's notes[10] indicating that Smith and Emily had thirteen children. It seems more than likely that one of the daughters would have been called "Sarah" in honor of both grandmothers.

CHILDREN OF SMITH AND EMILY (STEBBINS) LACKOR:[4, 7, 10, 24]

10. i. John N. (or D.?) Lackor was born 6 March 1817[4, 25] in Middlesex,[4] Ontario Co., (now Yates) N. Y.[8]

11. ii. Maria Louisa Lackor [Louisa][4, 26] was born 2 June 1819,[26, 27, 28, 29] Middlesex, Ontario Co., (now Yates) N. Y.[4, 8, 29]

12. iii. Selden W. Lackor was born 22 February 1822,[4, 29] Middlesex,[4] Ontario Co., (now Yates) N. Y.[29]

[24] These names were found in cemetery inscriptions, censuses, newspaper items, as well as from family information[7, 10] and the Bible record.[4]

[25] The Bible record[4] shows this date and birthplace. The Chestnut Ridge Cemetery[3] has "John N. Lackor born 6 March 1816" and the deaths listed in School District 8, Town of Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., sent by Mrs. Winner[12], have "John D. Lackor, died 16 May 1847, aged 31."

[26] The Bible listing[4] has her name as Maria L. and I have a spoon of hers engraved M. L. Anderson. She always went by the name of Louisa[10] and censuses showed both first names. The Bible[4] has 1820 as her birth year but every other record I have indicates 1819.

13. iv. James Ryan Lackor was born 22 April 1824,[3, 4, 7, 9] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[4, 9]

14. v. Nabby E. Lackor [Abby, probably Abigail] was born 7 April 1826,[3, 4] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[4]

vi. Orin S. Lackor (Bible record [4] has name typed as Erin) was born 6 April 1828,[3, 4] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[4] He died 23 November 1863, Placerville, Idaho Territory[3, 30] and is buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Royalton, N. Y.[3] The Idaho Historical Society in Boise checked the September 1863 Idaho Territory Poll Tax list for me and did not locate his name. They indicated it was not a true "census." No further record of him.

15. vii. Sophia Malinda Lackor was born 6 July 1830,[4, 10, 31, 32] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[4, 10]

16. viii. Horace L. Lackor was born 25 March 1832,[4, 7, 33] Royalton,[4] Niagara Co.,[29] N. Y.

ix. Amanda Lackor was born 22 February 1834,[3, 4] Royalton,[4] Niagara Co., N. Y. She died 22 November 1842[3] and was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[3]

x. Charles V. Lackor was born 6 March 1836,[4, 34] Royalton,[4] Niagara Co., N. Y., died 2 May 1901,[34] Empire Township, Leelanau Co., Mich.,[34] and is buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Empire Township, Leelanau Co., Mich.[35] Charles enrolled 31 July 1862, Lockport, as a private in Company D to serve three years, 129 New York Volunteer Infantry (later 8th Artillery) in the Civil War; promoted to sergeant 22 August 1862; wounded 3 June 1864, Cold Harbor, Virginia; commissioned Second Lieutenant 16 July 1864; discharged disability 6 October 1864, Washington, and also listed as Sergeant, Company

Charles V. Lackor lived in Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., probably until his marriage, [23, 29] per 1855 and 1865 censuses. In 1875 [29] he is shown in the Town of Niagara, with his wife, but no details were given. In 1880 he is back in the Town of Royalton, with his wife. [39]

Sometime after 1888, when he sold his property in Royalton, [39] he went to Empire Township, Leelanau Co., Mich., to live at the LaRue Hotel, owned by his brother-in-law, John LaRue. Howard LaRue McCall, his great-nephew, recalled [10] visiting the family home in Royalton when he was a very young boy and his grandmother, Sophia (Lackor) LaRue was there on a visit from Michigan. At that time she invited her brother, Charles, to return to Michigan with her to live.

He was married in 1872 at the residence of William A. Tannen in Medina, N. Y. by a Presbyterian minister to Clara A. Wilson. [37] She was born about 1846, [3] New York, [38] and died 11 November 1885 [3] in Buffalo, Erie Co., N. Y. [37] They had no children. [7, 10] Letters of Administration were filed for Clara W. Lackor 19 December 1885, Niagara County, N. Y. [12]

xi. Mary M. Lackor was born 22 April 1839 [4, 7] in Royalton, [4] Niagara Co., N. Y. [7] The 1855 [29] and 1865 [23] censuses list her age and county of birth. She died 3 December 1873, Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y. [40] Mary M. Terry left her estate to her husband. [12]

She married 24 January 1868, Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., at her residence [41] William Augustus Terry, known as Augustus. He was born about 1834, probably Royalton, [42] Niagara Co., N. Y. He died about 1887-1888, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.[43] He was the son of Isaac and Ruth (Treadwell) Terry, who resided in Royalton. This is shown in a marriage item of Jane M. Terry, daughter of Isaac Terry, to Norman Geddes, Esq., of Adrian, Mich.,[44] and a biographical account of Frank H. Terry,[45] indicating his father, Isaac Terry, had married Ruth Treadwell. In censuses, Frank appears to be a brother of Augustus. In 1880, Augustus Terry was living alone.

Augustus and Mary M. (Lackor) Terry had no children.[7, 10] In addition to family information, this might be shown by the fact that no children were named in the estate of either Augustus or Mary, or appeared in the 1870 census listing.[42]

My grandmother, Mary (LaRue) McCall, was named for this "Aunt Mary."[10]

X—JOHN ALLEN LACKOR'S DESCENDANTS

FIFTH GENERATION

8. RODERICK W. LACKOR (John Allen, John, John, John) was probably born about 1810 to 1812,[1, 2] although cemetery monument has birth year of 1802.[3] He was probably born in Middlesex Town, Ontario Co. (now Yates), N. Y.[4]

The Michigan location of this family was found quite accidently, while studying an 1860 census film.[2]

Roderick Lackor died 5 June 1863,[3, 5] aged 61 (cemetery),[3] probably in Old Mission, Grand Traverse Co., Mich.,[5] He is buried in Peninsula Township Cemetery adjoining the Ogdensburg Methodist Church.[3] He had lived in Middlesex, Ontario Co., N. Y.,[4] at least until 1817, and probably soon afterwards moved to Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[1]

He is shown as both grantee and grantor for the same piece of property in Niagara County, N. Y.[6]

> "Smith Lackor and Emily his wife of Royalton sell on 15 December 1840" (note: this was written on a printed form, with the year "1850" crossed out. It appears it was made out "officially" when Roderick decided to sell the property) ". . . land in Town of Royalton . . . part of lot number five, section seven laying on the east side of the road leading from the Batavia Road to Orangeport . . . recorded 6 March, 1855."

Sometime between June 1855 [1] and October 1856, the date of his daughter's birth in Michigan, [2, 5] he and his family moved to Old Mission, Grand Traverse Co., Mich.

Roderick W. Lackor probably married prior to 1840, and probably in Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., Mary Ann Christopher. She was born 2 January 1822, [1, 2, 3] Seneca Co., N. Y. [1] and died 2 October 1890, aged sixty-eight years, eight months, eleven days, [3] Peninsula Township, Grand Traverse Co., Mich. [3, 7] She is buried in Peninsula Township Cemetery, adjoining Ogdensburg Methodist Church. [3] Her parents were Jesse and Sarah (———) Christopher. [7]

CHILDREN OF RODERICK W. AND MARY ANN (CHRISTOPHER) LACKOR:

i. Gilbert S. Lackor, born about 1840, Niagara County, N. Y., [1] probably Royalton. He died 5 March 1863, General Hospital, Alexandria, Virginia, from Rubeola. [5] He enlisted 13 August 1862, Traverse County, as a private, Company A, 26 Regiment, Michigan Volunteers. [5] In 1860, a Gilbert Lucker, aged 19, born New York, laborer, was living in Manistee County, Mich., Stronach Township, with William Ward family. [6] Possibly it was the census for this Gilbert. Civil War records show Gilbert S. Lackor left no widow or children. [5]

ii. Hiram Lackor, born about 1845, Niagara Co., N. Y. [1] probably Royalton. In 1880 he lived at home with his widowed mother, unmarried. [9] He died 20 June 1892, Peninsula Township, Grand Traverse Co., Mich., [3] and he was listed then as a farmer, single. [8]

iii. James H. Lackor, born 26 June 1847, Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y. [10] No further record after 1850 census. [11]

iv. Smith Robert Lackor, born 10 March 1849, Royalton,

v. Joseph Lackor, born about August 1850 (listed as aged three weeks on 3 September 1850 census).[11] He possibly died before 1860. In 1855 he is listed as aged four[1] but no further record after that.

17. vi. Albert H. Lackor, born 2 December 1853,[5] Niagara Co., N. Y.[1] probably Royalton.

vii. Fanny S. Lackor, born 16 October 1856, Michigan,[2, 5, 7] probably Peninsula Township, Grand Traverse County. She was married 28 May 1876, Peninsula Township, Grand Traverse Co., Mich., to Oscar C. Browning, by A. A. Leighton;[7] witnesses were Abby L. Curtis and Mrs. William Welch.[7] Oscar C. Browning was born about 1846, Maine.[8] Both of his parents were born in Maine.[8] Their marriage record was written as "Lucas."[7] The 1880 census showed no indication of children[9] No further information.

XI—RENSSELLAER LACKOR'S DECENDANTS

FIFTH GENERATION

9. ADDISON LACKOR [LACORE] [1] (Renssellaer, John, John, John) was born about 1810 to 1812 in New York, [2, 3] probably in Middlesex, Ontario Co. (now Yates), N. Y. [4] A biographical article about his son, Marvin LaCore, mentions that Addison LaCore was born in Batavia, New York. [5] Undoubtedly the place where he lived for quite a while was confused with his actual birthplace. Batavia, prior to 1826, was the nearest post office to Royalton. [6]

Addison Lacore died about 1898, about 87 years old, in Jonesville, Hillsdale Co., Mich., [5] although there is no county or state record of this, as yet located. He is not buried in Sunset View Cemetery, Jonesville, Mich., but might possibly be buried in Moscow Plains, Mich. [7] Addison Lacore resided in Batavia, N. Y. (This might refer to Royalton, as mentioned above.) He moved to Bronson, Branch Co., Mich., about 1836. [5]

About 1847, Addison Lacore went to Stephenson Co., Ill. and in 1847-1849, to California, later returning to Michigan and settling in Jonesville, Hillsdale Co., Mich., where he died. [5] A news brief [8] appearing in the same paper with John LaRue's obituary on 17 December 1897:

> "M. LaCore left Thursday morning for Jonesville, Hillsdale County for a visit to his father."

[1] His descendants all used the spelling "Lacore," which I shall use, too, excepting his son, Marvin, who changed it to "LaCore."

Addison Lacore married first in 1833 Sarah (Marvin) Guile, widow of Lorenzo Guile.[9] She was born 1810, Onondaga County, N. Y.[9] and died 1839-1840, Bronson, Branch Co., Mich.,[5] when thrown from a horse. It is not known where she is buried. Her parents were Selden and Charlotte (Pratt) Marvin.[9] Sarah Marvin had married first in 1829 Lorenzo Guile who was born 1807 in Pompey Hill, N. Y.,[9] who died in 1833 in Dryden, N. Y.[9] They had a daughter, Charlotte Augusta Guile, born 24 July 1830, Dryden, N. Y.[9] She was living, as a widow, in 1880 in Jamestown, Chautauqua Co., N. Y.[10] with her married son. She married 23 November 1852 John F. Smith. When he died 1865 Fort Fischer, N. C., in the Civil War,[9] he was a colonel.

Addison Lacore married second, probably between 1840 and 1844, Irene Sarah Sears,[11] who was born about 1807 in Maine.[2, 3] It is not known when she died, but probably in Hillsdale County, Mich., and she might have been buried in Somerset Township.[7] She is not buried in Sunset View Cemetery, Jonesville, Mich.[7] Her parents were Silas and Abigail (Burgess) Sears.[11]

Children of Addison and first Wife, Sarah (Marvin, Guile) Lacore:

i. Melvina Eloise Lacore, born 21 May 1834,[12] Batavia,[9] N. Y.,[13, 14] and she died 4 June 1917, aged 83 years, 14 days in White Rock Twp., Kings Village, Ogle Co., Ill.[12]

In 1855, Melvina Lacore was living in Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., with the family of her great uncle, Smith Lackor.[15] In 1860 she is shown in two Michigan censuses; with her father's family in Hillsdale County,[16] listed as a teacher; and also with the Marcus Scovil family [17] in Coldwater, Branch Co., Mich. [17] It is likely that she boarded with the latter family while teaching. In 1870 [13] and 1880 [14] she lived in White Rock Twp., Ogle Co., Ill., and after 1891 she moved to Kings, Ogle Co., Ill. [18]

Melvina Lacore married first, probably between 1860 and 1869, a Mr. Langdon. [16] He had a son, Charles Langdon, who was supposedly born in the early 1860s and eventually lived with the Konkle family in Ogle Co., Ill. [18] Later, Charles Langdon moved to Colorado Springs, Colo., [18] where he married and died. [18] No more is known of him. It is not certain if this Charles Langdon was a son of Mr. Langdon and possibly a first wife, or if Melvina Lacore was his mother. I am inclined to believe she was not his mother, because he was not living with her in the 1870 and 1880 census listings. [13, 14]

Melvina Lacore married second 20 May 1869 [19] Alfred E. Konkle, as his second wife. He was born 24 June 1825, Blairstown, N. Y. [19] and he died in 1918 and is buried in White Rock Cemetery, Ogle Co., Ill. [18] He was the son of John and Miriam (Drake) Konkle. [19] Alfred E. Konkle was a farmer and moved to Ogle Co., Ill., in 1857. [19] From then until 1891 he lived in White Rock Twp. and in 1891 moved to Kings (Kings Station) Ogle Co., Ill. [19] The Town of Kings was first named Kings Station and is nine miles north of Rochelle and twenty miles south of Rockford. [18] Alfred E. Konkle had married first 29 December 1853 Margaret A. Mayberry, who was born 1834 and died 18 April 1867, aged thirty-three. [19] She was buried in White Rock Cemetery, Ogle Co., Ill. [18] Alfred E. and his first wife, Margaret A. (Mayberry) Konkle had six children. They are not Lackor descendants but Melvina (Lacore, Langdon) Konkle brought them up. [18] These children were: Abby Lucilla Konkle; John Konkle who married Estella [Stella] Proctor, who were parents of Mrs. Annis (Konkle) King; Mary Elizabeth Konkle who married William

18. ii. Henry Marvin Lackor—name changed to Marvin LaCore[21]—was born 18 May, 1836, Michigan.[5, 22] The biographical article[5, 22] indicated he was born in Hillsdale County, but this might be wrong, since Addison lived in Bronson, Branch Co., Mich. in 1840.[23] Marvin LaCore was most likely born in Bronson, Mich.

XII—SMITH LACKOR'S DESCENDANTS

FIFTH GENERATION

10. JOHN N. (D.?) LACKOR[1, 2, 3] (Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 6 March 1817[1] although his gravestone shows 16 March 1816,[2] Middlesex,[1] Ontario Co., (now Yates) N. Y.[4] He died 16 May 1847,[2, 3] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.,[3] and was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Royalton, N. Y.[2]

He married first, prior to 1838, Joanna Eggleston,[5] who was born 15 January 1820[2] and died 4 September 1841,[2] probably in Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y. She, too, was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Royalton, N. Y.

The death record for John D. Lackor[3] indicated that he was married at the time of his death. There is also a death record for an infant with the same name as his.[3] This child was born after the death of his first wife, indicating a probable second marriage. The 1850 census[6] of Smith Lackor's family has an unidentified female, i.e.,

"Catherine Lackor, aged 24" living with them. It is conceivable that she was the second wife of John N. (D.?) Lackor, but there is no proof or further record of her. She might have married again soon afterwards.

John N. (D.?) Lackor probably married second between 1842 and 1846 and possibly her name was Catherine ———, who was born about 1826 in New York.[6]

22. i. William Smith Lackor,[5, 8] born 26 April 1838 (or 1839)[9] in Royalton (or Lockport), Niagara Co., N. Y.[9]

CHILD OF JOHN N. (D.?) AND PROBABLE SECOND WIFE, POSSIBLY NAMED CATHERINE (———) LACKOR:

ii. John D. Lackor, born about October 1846[3] and died 11 June 1847,[3] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., aged eight months, of scrofula. There is actually no proof that this child is his son, but John was the only married son at that time and it appears likely he fits into this family.

11. MARIA LOUISA LACKOR [LOUISA][1] (Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 2 June 1819,[1, 10, 11] although the Bible record[1] shows birth year as 1820. I have one of her spoons, engraved "M. L. Anderson," which would seem to show her first name was Maria and not Louisa. She was born in Middlesex,[1] Ontario Co., (now Yates) N. Y.[4, 12] and she died 3 April 1902,[10, 11] Empire Township, Leelanau Co., Mich.,[10, 11] and is buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Empire Township, Mich.[11]

Louisa married about 1840-1841,[10, 11] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[10] John Anderson, who was born 1819, Canada.[12, 13] He lived there until about 1838[13] when he moved to Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.[13] For many years their address was 27 Caledonia Street, Lockport.[12, 14] He was a painter[13] and a shoemaker[12, 15] and was also the first Chief of Police in Lockport.[14, 16, 17]

John Anderson died 28 November 1898, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y., and was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Royalton, N. Y.[13] His parents were John and Betsy (Sparrow) Anderson, both born in Canada.[18]

Mary (LaRue) McCall went from her home in Michigan to live with the Andersons[15] about 1862-1863. She recalled reading the Civil War news to them from the newspapers.[15] Her aunt, Louisa (Lackor) Anderson, was a seamstress[18] and taught her lace making and other fine needlework arts.[15]

After the death of her husband, Louisa (Lackor) Anderson moved to Empire Township, Leelanau Co., Mich., to reside with her sister, Sophia (Lackor) LaRue.[5, 10] Her niece, Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh, helped her pack.[5] Since Louisa was the oldest living child and her widowed mother, Emily (Stebbins) Lackor, had lived with her many years, the family Bible was there and Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh had an opportunity to copy dates and information from it.[5]

CHILD OF JOHN AND LOUISA (LACKOR) ANDERSON:[11]

i. Lauren Anderson (son),[2, 5] born about April, 1843, died 11 August 1844,[2] probably in Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y., and buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, aged one year, four months.[2]

12. SELDON W. LACKOR (Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 22 February 1822,[1, 19] Middlesex, Ontario County, (now Yates) New York.[1, 19] His name was undoubtedly Selden Williams Lackor, named for his uncle, Selden Williams (husband of Sally Lackor, sister of Smith Lackor). The Williams family lived near them in Ontario Co., N. Y., in 1820.[4]

[15] My father, Howard LaRue McCall, remembered this family well. As a boy, he played in the sheds with the shoemaker's tools. His mother, Mary Louise (LaRue) McCall, was brought up by this aunt and uncle. Her middle name was for this aunt, Louisa.

Selden W. Lackor died 28 January 1872,[20] Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.[20] and was buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Lockport, N. Y.[20, 21] He married between 1850 and 1852[19, 22] Mary Jane Steele.[5, 23, 24] She was born about 1834, Niagara Co., N. Y.,[19] and died 18 April 1884, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.,[25] and was buried in Glenwood Cemetery.[21]

Selden W. Lackor moved to Lockport about 1850[19] and lived at Elm Street, Third Ward.[19, 26] He was a liquor dealer and salesman.[20]

CHILDREN OF SELDON W. AND MARY JANE (STEELE) LACKOR:

23. i. Charles E. Lackor, born 5 June 1852,[24] Niagara Co., N. Y.,[19] probably Lockport.

24. ii. Emma E. Lackor, born about December 1854 to March 1855,[19] Niagara Co., N. Y.[19] probably Lockport.

13. JAMES RYAN LACKOR (Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 22 April 1824,[1, 2, 5, 27] Royalton (Orangeport), Niagara Co., N. Y.[1, 5, 27] He died 9 January 1912[27, 28] at 253 Walnut Street, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.,[27, 28] and was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Royalton, N. Y.,[2, 28] (his grave has only his birth date).

He married 18 October 1849,[5, 27] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[5] Harriet Alma Maynard.[5] She was born 27 February 1827,[2, 5] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[5] and died 6 October 1882,[2, 5] Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.,[5] and was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery.[2] Her parents were John and Charity Alma (Andrews) Maynard.[5]

James Ryan Lackor was named for a good friend of his father's, i.e. James Ryan, who had married, as her second husband, Margaret (———) Lackor [Peggy].[5] She was the widow of John Allen Lackor, a brother of Smith Lackor.[5] Most of the information on this branch was sent in 1965 to 1968 correspondence with Jessie (Lackor) Peck, Newfane, N. Y., a granddaughter of James Ryan Lackor.[5] She had obtained these data sixty years ago from her aunt, Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh.

James Ryan Lackor was a farmer[29] and a driver[29] for American Express. He resided in Royalton until about 1868 and after his father's death he moved to Lockport,[27] both in Niagara County.

CHILDREN OF JAMES RYAN AND HARRIET ALMA (MAYNARD) LACKOR:

25. i. Frank James Lackor, born 18 December 1852,[5, 30] Royalton,[5] Niagara Co., N. Y.

26. ii. Martha Eliza Lackor, born 21 September 1854,[5, 31] Royalton,[5] Niagara Co., N. Y.

14. NABBY E. LACKOR [Abby or Abigail] (Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 7 April 1826,[1, 2] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.,[1, 5] and she died there 27 February 1851,[2, 32] at her father's home. She was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Royalton, N. Y.[2] Nabby Lackor probably married prior to 1848, and probably in Royalton, N. Y., Edward Brink[6, 32] as his first wife. He was born about 1819 in Pennsylvania.[6] He married second, probably between February 1851 and about 1853[33] Alzada (———), who was born about 1821, Niagara Co., N. Y.[33] The 1855 census showed two children listed for Edward Brink and his second wife, Alzada (———) Brink. Possibly there were others, but no further record of them was located after the 1855 census. These chil-

CHILDREN OF EDWARD AND NABBY E. (LACKOR) BRINK:

27. i. Alton B. Brink, born 4 February 1848[6, 33, 34] in Niagara Co.,[33] N. Y., probably Royalton.

ii. Horace L. Brink [Hod] was born about 1851[35] (before 27 February when his mother died), Niagara Co., N. Y.,[35] probably Royalton. He died about 1920 to 1925 at the home of Dr. Frank John LaRue, 801 Frankfort Avenue, Elberta, Benzie Co., Mich.[36] He is buried in Gilmore Township Cemetery, Benzie Co., Mich., in an unmarked grave by a tree.[36] I have been unable to locate his death record. The Benzie County clerk searched all the "B" names for me covering this period and the state also has no record. Horace Brink never married.[36] He was a painter.[36] He lived in Royalton and Lockport, both Niagara Co., N. Y., until at least 1880.[37] Later on, he lived in Empire Township, Leelanau Co., Mich., since the 1904 obituary of Sophia (Lackor) LaRue refers to him as of that place.[38] He eventually moved to Elberta, Benzie Co., Mich., and lived in a little house he owned on the property of his cousin, Dr. Frank John LaRue.[36]

15. SOPHIA MALINDA LACKOR (Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 6 July 1830,[1, 15, 39] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.,[15] and she died 20 February 1904,[38, 39] Empire Township, Leelanau Co., Mich., and was buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Leelanau Co., Mich.[40] (marked with the wrong year). She was a schoolteacher from October 1850 to October 1851 in Royalton, N. Y.[41] where she lived until her marriage. She then went to Manitou, Leelanau Co., Mich.,[38] on the old steamboat Sultana,[38] and was the first white woman to settle in the county.[38] She later moved to Glen Arbor, Northport, Mich.,[38] and Empire Township, Leelanau County.[38, 42]

Sophia (Lackor) LaRue was musical, as will be noted from her will[43] wherein she leaves her piano to her granddaughter, Winnie Comstock, and her organ to her granddaughter, Bernice M. Bowse.[43] Lorraine (Selby) Richardson, daughter of Winnie (Comstock) Selby, recalls her mother's telling of Sophia's having a nice singing voice.

Sophia Lackor was married 26 October 1851[15, 44] in Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y.[44] by Reverend S. Hunt, to John LaRue,[44] as his second wife.[15]

John LaRue (Lerue—as early records were frequently written) was born 6 December 1814,[40, 45] North Pearl Street, Albany, Albany Co., N. Y.[45] He died 12 December 1897,[45, 46, 47] Empire Township, Leelanau Co., Mich.[46] He also was buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Leelanau Co., Mich.[40] His parents were John and Mary (Stewart) LaRue.[15, 46] His daughter, Mary (LaRue) McCall, often said that her father's mother was a "Stewart" from Glens Falls, N. Y., and John LaRue's death certificate listed his mother's name as "Mary." Family tradition has often claimed his father was born in Virginia (which was also indicated on his 1880 census listing[42]) but, to date, the LaRue ancestry has not been established. John LaRue (Sr.) is listed in Albany City, N. Y., censuses for 1810 and 1820 and several city directories at about that time.

According to his obituary,[45] John LaRue lived in Albany and Glens Falls, N. Y., until about 1830 when he went up to Canada for about four years. About 1835 he went to Greenville, Pa., and about 1839, to Burlington, Iowa. In 1844-1845 he purchased property in Cook County, Ill., the site of what is now downtown Chicago, and in 1847, in search of health, he sold this and went into Leelanau County, Mich. This is also shown:[48]

> "In 1847 John Lerue came from Chicago to the Manitou islands in search of health . . . finding the climate favorable to his health, Mr. Lerue commenced trading with the Indians, and the next year moved his establishment over to the mainland, locating at what was then called Sleeping Bear bay, but now Glen Arbor, thus becoming the first white inhabitant of Leelanau county."

His obituary continued the account of his ventures. In the fall of 1851 (this would be when he was married) he took his family to Northport for the winter and in the spring of 1852 they moved to Glen Arbor. His residence in what is now (1897) Empire Township was established a few years later. This village was described in 1903[49] as:

> ". . . an incorporated village in Section 19 of Township of Empire . . . on high ground on the shore of Lake Michigan. The first settler at this point was John Larue . . . Marvin LaCore was . . . also [an] early settler here."

Returning to his obituary, it is learned that John LaRue was a lifelong member of the Masonic order. To substantiate this,[50] his name was found listed amongst the twenty-six members on the returns of the Burlington Lodge Number 41 (Iowa) of 20 October 1841.

John LaRue had married, probably in Burlington, Iowa, or Greenville, Penn., about 1839-1840,[45] and his wife died about 1845 in Chicago, Ill., leaving two children.[45] As yet I have not located her name or other information about her.

Y.[54] She was buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Lockport, N. Y.[54] She married between 1865 and 1868, probably in Niagara Co., N. Y., Daniel Magner:[45, 52]

CHILDREN OF JOHN AND SOPHIA MALINDA (LACKOR) LARUE:

28. i. Mary Louise LaRue, born 7 August 1854,[51] Northport, Leelanau Co., Mich.[15]

29. ii. Della E. LaRue, born 1 September 1856,[51] Glen Arbor, Leelanau Co., Mich.[55]

iii. Charles Smith LaRue, born 6 September 1858,[51] Empire Township, Leelanau Co., Mich.,[36] and died 23 February 1897,[47] unmarried. He was buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Leelanau Co., Mich.[40] In 1895, when his sister, Mary (LaRue) McCall, visited her family in Empire Township, Mich., from New York State, she wrote to her son,[56] Howard LaRue McCall:

> ". . . Uncle Charlie has gone hunting again . . . I hope he will shoot another deer, if he does and it has horns he is going to give them to me, he gave me the feet of the one he shot the other day for a foot-stool, you or Papa will have to put the top on for me."

16. HORACE L. LACKOR (Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 25 March 1832,[1, 5, 57] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. The Bible affidavit[1] has 1832 for Horace, so I have used that year. Horace died 10 July 1902, Minneapolis, Hennepin Co., Minn.[57] and is buried in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis, Lot 85, Section 17—no marker.[57] About 1850 he moved to Lockport Town[12] from Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., and in 1855[12] he was living with his sister, Louisa (Lackor) Anderson. In 1870 he was in Toledo, Ohio.[58] Shortly afterwards he moved to Worthington, Minn.,[59] and in 1880 he moved to Minneapolis.[59, 60] He was in the lead and zinc paint manufacturing business and a merchant.[58]

Horace L. Lackor married between 1855 and 1858,[12, 61, 62] Niagara Co., N. Y.,[63] Eliza [Lizzie] Daniels. She was born 11 December 1837,[63, 64] Lockport, Niagara Co., N. ## XIII—JOHN ALLEN LACKOR'S DESCENDANTS

SIXTH GENERATION

17. ALBERT H. LACKOR (Roderick W., John Allen, John, John, John) was born 2 December 1853,[1] Niagara Co., N. Y.,[2] probably Royalton. He undoubtedly moved with his family to Peninsula Twp., Old Mission, Grand Traverse Co., Mich.[1, 2] He was a farmer.

Albert married first, probably during 1879[3] Elmira Clement. She was born about 1856 in Michigan[3] and probably died between 1883 and 1897.[4] Her parents were born in Canada.[3]

Albert A. Lackor was married second 1 August 1897[4] Mapleton, Peninsula Township, Grand Traverse Co., Mich., by Reverend Willard Heath to Mary (Bailey) Lydell, who had formerly been married to a Mr. Lydell. She was a dressmaker then, living in Traverse City. Witnesses were William and Clara Crisp. She probably died before 1909, when her husband married a third time.[4]

His third marriage was on 20 February 1909, Traverse City, Michigan, to Martha Jane (Kitchen) Douglas, formerly married to a Mr. Douglas. She was born about 1858, daughter of John and Amy (Clark) Kitchen.[4]

There may have been more children, but I only have a record of one viz. child of Albert H. and first wife, Elmira (Clement) Lackor:

i. Mina Lackor was born about 1883.[4] She moved to Arizona for asthma relief about 1939[5] and died in 1951.[5] She was married 9 April 1900, Ypsilanti, Mich., by the Reverend Francis E. Arnold to Charles E. Lannin,[4] who was born about 1875 and died in 1958.[5] His parents were Charles and Mary A. (Stevenson) Lannin.[4] He was a cherry farmer[5] and he and his wife, Mina, had a home on the Old Mission Peninsula, Grand Traverse Co., Mich.[5]

They had seven children, five of whom are living in 1968.[5] One of them is Pearl F. Lannin who married a Mr. Letts and in 1968 lives at 1103 Barlow, Traverse City, Mich. 49684.

XIV—RENSSELLAER LACKOR'S DESCENDANTS

SIXTH GENERATION

18. HENRY MARVIN LACKOR (name changed[1] to Marvin LaCore) (Addison [Lacore], Renssellaer, John, John, John) was born 18 May 1836,[2, 3] Michigan[2] (Note: the biographical article about Marvin LaCore [2] indicates he was born in Hillsdale County. I think, actually, he was born in Bronson Twp., Branch Co., Mich., since his family lived there in 1840[4] and didn't locate in Hillsdale County until after 1850.) He died 26 September 1916,[3] possibly in Elk Rapids, Mich.[1] He was buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Leelanau Co., Mich.[3]

There is a Navy record[5] as well as his Army service.

At first, in the Civil War, he was a Second Lieutenant, Company C, Seventh Regiment, Michigan Volunteer Infantry,[1] enlisted 22 August 1861, Monroe, Mich. In the United States Navy, he was aboard the U. S. S. Choctaw, W. T. Anderson and Portsmouth.[1] He enlisted in Chicago,[5] as shown on list, during the week ending 3 September 1864, in the United States Navy, under the name of Core, La, Marvin (Marion crossed over) and listed with the "C"s not the "L"s.[5] His residence then was Fourth District, Grand Traverse Co., Mich.[5]

After the death of his mother in 1839-1840,[2] Marvin lived with many different families around the country,[2] including, in 1850, his aunt, Sabra (Lackor) Morse.[2, 6] He also spent a few years on a whaling vessel.[2] [6] 1850 N. Y., Niagara Co., Wilson, with James M. and Sabra Morse: Marvin Lacore, 14, born Michigan, and Phebe Lacor. . . .

Marvin LaCore was married 13 January 1863 [1, 2] in Wilson, Niagara Co., N. Y. [1, 2] by the Reverend L. C. Pettengill [1] to Mary J. Hill. [1, 2] She was born 4 March 1840 [3] in Lewiston, Niagara Co., N. Y. [2] He probably met her when he lived in Wilson, N. Y. His wife died 23 September 1913 [1, 3] and was buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Leelanau Co., Mich. [3] She was the daughter of John (born in Edinburg, Scotland) and Margaret (Smith) (born in Canada) Hill. [7, 8]

After leaving the service, Marvin LaCore lived in Empire Twp., north half of southwest quarter of Section ninteen, Town twenty-eight, North Range, fourteen West, [1, 9, 10] and later lived in Elk Rapids, Mich. [1] He was a farmer. [1]

CHILDREN OF MARVIN AND MARY J. (HILL) LACORE:

i. Maggie A. LaCore, born about 20 August 1866, [11] died 26 August 1867, aged one year, six days, in Leelanau Co., Mich. [10] She is buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Leelanau Co., Mich., in the LaCore plot as "Maggie." [3] She is mentioned in the biographical account. [2]

35. ii. Lillian Aurilla LaCore, [1, 11] was born 19 June 1868, Empire Twp., Leelanau Co., Mich. [11]

36. iii. John Oramel LaCore was born 20 March 1870 [1, 11] Empire Twp., Leelanau Co., Mich. [11]

37. iv. Otto Marvin LaCore, M.D., was born 5 March 1875, Empire Twp., Leelanau Co., Mich. [1,10]

19. MARY ANN LACORE (Addison Lackor [Lacore], Rensellaer, John, John, John) was born about 1838, [12] Michigan, probably Bronson, Branch Co. [2, 4] So far I have not found a record as to when or where she died or was buried. In 1860 she lived in Fayette Twp., Hillsdale Co., P. O. Jonesville,

She is also referred to as being from there in 1904.[12] She was married between 1860 and 1862[13, 14] to William H. Rose.[12] He was born about 1841[14, 15, 16] and was a farmer. There is no positive proof, but he most likely was the son of John and Mary Ann (———) Rose, since the 1880 census shows William H. Rose's father[14] as born in Hanover, Germany, and his mother, born in England. These are the same locations that John Rose and his wife, Mary Ann, were born at, and they were living next to him.[14] In 1860[16] and 1850,[15] John's family lists a William Rose of the appropriate age living with them. There also were English families named Gorble, i.e. Johosephat Gorble, born about 1780, England, and wife, Mary, born about 1783, England, near the Rose family in 1850.[15] They may have been the parents of Mary Ann ———, wife of John Rose.

CHILDREN OF WILLIAM H. AND MARY ANN (LACORE) ROSE:

38. i. Sarah Ella Rose[17] [Ella], born about 1862,[14] Michigan.[14]

ii. Addie Isabella Rose, born 30 September 1882, Girard, Branch Co., Mich.[18, 19] She died 16 March 1958, St. Mary's Hospital, DeKalb, DeKalb Co., Ill.,[19] and was buried in Malta Cemetery, Malta, Ill., on the Engstrom Lot, Block 31, Lot 1.[19] She had been a phone operator for the DeKalb Ogle Telephone Company.[19]

Addie married twice. Her first marriage was to a Mr. Ludke,[20] and, according to relatives, he died young and she went to Kings, Ogle Co., Ill., to live with her aunt, Melvina (Lacore, Langdon) Konkle. She later married Earl Madden from Malta, Illinois, possibly about 1916.[19] He was born 23 October 1873 in Fairdale, Ill.,[19] and his parents were Joseph and Delila (Patterson) Madden.[19, 21] He died 2 October 1956, St. Mary's Hospital, DeKalb, Ill., and was also buried in the Engstrom Lot.[19] He had been a self employed carpenter and lived in Malta seventy-five years.[19] The Maddens had no children.[19, 21]

20. AGNES CAROLINE LACORE (Addison Lackor [Lacore], Renssellaer, John, John, John) was born 31 May 1844, Jonesville,[22, 23] Hillsdale Co., Mich., died 29 May 1921, Grace Hospital, Detroit, Mich.,[22] and was buried in Grand Lawn Cemetery.[22] She had resided at 5132 30 Street, Detroit, at the time of her death[22] and had lived in Detroit for thirty-eight years prior to then,[22] probably from the time of her marriage in 1883.[23] She was a teacher, according to the 1870 census.[24] She married 9 October 1883, Hudson, Lenawee Co., Mich.,[23] Elnathan Winchester Cleveland [Elhon], [Elhanon][22, 23, 25] as his second wife. He was born 22 January 1825,[23] (about 31 January 1825[25]) Bristol, N. Y.[23] son of John and Silva (Phillips) Cleveland.[23] He had married first 9 October 1851, Green Creek, Ohio, Mary Elizabeth Baxter, born 21 March 1820, near Pekin, Niagara Co., N. Y.[23] She died 3 August 1874.[23] She was the daughter of Erand and Polly (Rose) Baxter.[23] Children of Elhanon Winchester and his first wife, Mary Elizabeth (Baxter) Cleveland (not Lacore descendants):

21. FREDERICK THEODORE LACORE (Addison Lackor [Lacore], Renssellaer, John, John, John) was born 27 May 1848,[26] Illinois,[24, 27] (possibly in Stephenson County)[2] and he died 7 April 1931, Jonesville, Hillsdale Co., Mich., aged 82 years, 10 months, 12 days[28] and was buried in Sunset View Cemetery, Jonesville, Hillsdale Co., Mich.[26] He was a farmer and lived in Fayette Township, Jonesville, Mich.[24, 27] He married before 1867 Isabelle Gaige,[24, 26, 27, 28] who was born about 1848[27, 28] in Michigan and died 19 February 1904[26] in Hillsdale Co., Mich., aged 55. ## XV—SMITH LACKOR'S DESCENDANTS

SIXTH GENERATION

22. WILLIAM SMITH LACKOR[1] (John N. (D.?), Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 26 April 1838[2] Royalton (or Lockport[2]), Niagara Co., N. Y., died 28 July 1912[2] Ruthven, Highland Twp., Palo Alto Co., Iowa,[2] and was buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Ruthven, Iowa.[3]

He married 13 April 1866[2] in Dewitt, Clinton Co., Iowa, Elizabeth Gertrude Powell, who was also known as Lizzie Dennis because her father had died when she was young and her mother was remarried, to Absalom Dennis. She was born 27 October 1848, Lewiston, Niagara Co., N. Y., and died 10 June 1928[4] aged 79 years, 7 months, 13 days, in Lafayette Twp., Story City, Story Co., Iowa,[4] and is buried in Crown Hill Cemetery, Ruthven, Iowa.[3] Her father was Thomas Powell,[5] born in England, and her mother was Laura Eggleston,[5] born about 1806 in New York, per 1870 census.[6] It is quite possible that Laura Eggleston was an older sister or other close relative of Joanna Eggleston, mother of William Smith Lackor, and that after Joanna's death, he, as a baby, was taken into the Eggleston household and brought up with them. He did not appear in any of the state or national censuses of the Lackor family. When Laura (Eggleston) Powell

[1] Lizzie (Daniels) Lackore, widow of Horace L. Lackor, made notes from letters she received about sixty years ago and her great granddaughter, Nancy (Talhot) Doty, Mount Vernon, Wash. sent these to me in 1965. One was from a letter, 7 March 1909, William S. Lackor, Ruthven, Iowa: his "father's name was John, his mother's Joanna, born in N. Y. State and John was oldest child of Smith and Emily Lackor."

married Absalom Dennis [2, 7] and moved to Iowa, the child, William Smith Lackor, may have gone out to live with them. This is the only explanation I have been able to figure for his living in Iowa at such a young age. Absalom Dennis had lived in Niagara Co., N. Y. with his first wife and family, before moving to Dewitt Twp., Clinton Co., Iowa. [7]

William Smith Lackor was in the Civil War, as a Private in Company A, Eighth Iowa Volunteers. [2] He enlisted 5 September 1861, Davenport, Iowa, was discharged 2 April 1862, and reenlisted 30 September 1864 for one year, Company I, of former regiment. [2] He was a farmer [2, 6] and he was described as being 5'4", with light complexion, grey eyes and light hair. [2] He lived in Clinton County from about 1856 to 1880 [2, 8] when he was in Beaver, Boone Co. [8] In 1885 he lived in Freeman Township, Clay Co. [9] after which he moved to Ruthven Town, Palo Alto [10] Co., where he died. All of these were in Iowa.

Elizabeth Gertrude (Powell) Lackor, widow of William Smith Lackor, suffered a stroke in 1918 and spent part of the time with her son and daughter-in-law and part with her granddaughter, Mabel (Simington) Goff [11] in Ruthven, Iowa. Her son, Clifford John Lackor, lived in Story Co., Iowa. She also lived at the Iowa Soldier's Home in Marshalltown. [6]

23. CHARLES E. LACKOR (Selden W., Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 5 June 1852[12] in Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.[12] and he died 12 April 1905,[12] in Grace Hospital, Detroit, Wayne Co., Mich., and was buried in Glenwood[13] Cemetery in his father's plot, Lockport, N. Y.[14]

He was married, probably about 1882, since his death record, with the informant being his widow, indicated he had married at age thirty, to Louise S. ——— or Sarah C. ———. Possibly her name was Louise Sarah C. ———. No record has been located of this marriage.[15]

In the 1884 obituary[16] of his grandmother, Emily (Stebbins) Lackor, he was listed as a newspaper clerk for the House of Representatives, residing in Washington, D. C. The Congressional directories appended to the city directories[17] list him for the years, 1884-1886, but not for 1887 or 1888. In 1884 and 1886 he was at the National Hotel and in 1885 at 404 East Capitol Street, as a newspaper clerk. He was in Lockport, N. Y., in 1887.

Charles E. Lackor eventually moved to Detroit, Mich., where he died.[12] His death certificate indicated his occupation as a clerk. No Lackor name is listed in the Detroit City Directory for 1905[18] but his widow, Louise S., lived at 70 High Street, there, in 1906 and 1907, and his two daughters were with her in 1906 but not 1907. There were no Lackor entries from 1908 through 1910.[18] His widow and his daughters may have married after his death, but no indication of this appeared in Michigan state marriage records from 1906 through 1908. His widow may have moved elsewhere. There is no further record.

CHILDREN OF CHARLES E. AND LOUISE S. (SARAH C.?) (———) LACKOR:

(note—his death certificate showed he was father of two children, both of whom were living)

i. Grace Lackor, born probably after 1882, not known where. In 1905 [13] and 1906 [18] she lived at home in Detroit, Mich., but was not listed in 1907. [18] No further record.

ii. Mabel Lackor, born probably after 1882, not known where. In 1905 [13] and 1906 [18] she lived at home in Detroit, Mich., but was not listed in 1907 there. [18] No further record.

24. EMMA E. LACKOR (Selden W., Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born about December 1854 to March 1855, Niagara Co., N. Y., probably Lockport [19] and died 16 December 1932, West Philadelphia, Pa., at 4523 Locust Street, [20] and was buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Lockport, N. Y., [14, 20] in the Martin S. Kittinger lot.

She was married 17 May 1876, Lockport, N. Y., at her mother's home, by the Reverend Foster Ely, assisted by the Reverend J. N. Freeman, as recorded in register of Grace Episcopal Church, pages 542-43, to Martin S. Kittinger, M.D., [21, 22] as his second wife. [21] He was born about April 1827 [21] in Cuba, N. Y. [21] His obituary [23] said he was born in Cuba, Erie Co., N. Y. (Cuba is now in Allegany County.) He died 11 September 1904 [21, 23] at 187 High Street, Lockport, N. Y., and is buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Lockport, N. Y. He was the son of Samuel, born in Lancaster, Pa., and Dorothy (Van Lyte), born in Lancaster, Tenn., Kittinger. Dr. Martin S. Kittinger was a physician and surgeon. [23] In the Civil War, he was Surgeon of 100th Regiment Infantry, New York Volunteers, from 9 October 1861 to 9 January 1865, enrolled and discharged at Buffalo, N. Y. He was captured at Bracketts Station, 3 June 1862. [21]

Kittinger, born about 1867, [24] living at home in 1891, Lockport, and in 1892 moved to New York City; [25] Annie Grace Kittinger, born about 1868, married Charles W. In 1908, Emma (Lackor) Kittinger declared she had only one child and she was over sixteen. [21] Emma (Lackor) Kittinger lived in Lockport, N. Y., and later moved to 4523 Locust Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., with her daughter. [21]

i. Florence Kittinger, born about 1879, New York, [27] probably in Niagara Co., Lockport, N. Y. She married prior to 1904 [23] Seth Van Loan who lived in Philadelphia, Pa. then. [23] In 1932, they resided in West Philadelphia, Pa., at 4523 Locust Street. [20, 25] No further record of this family except that the 1966 directory lists a Seth Morton Van Loan at that same address.

25. FRANK JAMES LACKOR (James Ryan, Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 18 December 1852, [27] Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y. [27] died 11 December 1927, [27] Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y., and was buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Lockport, N. Y. [27] He married 13 August 1882 [27] in Lockport, N. Y. Ida Finetta Tracy. [27] She was born 4 May 1856, DeKalb, Ill., [27] and died 14 September 1907, Lockport,

N. Y.[27, 28] She was buried in Glenwood Cemetery also.[27] Her parents were Henry E. and Mary Aldula (Earle) Tracy.[27]

Frank James Lackor was a dealer in flour, feed, and grain, and a baker.[29, 30] He moved with his parents about 1868 from Royalton to Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y. He resided for many years at 89 East Avenue there.[29]

CHILDREN OF FRANK JAMES AND IDA FINETTA (TRACY) LACKOR

42. i. Jessie Harriet Lackor, born 1 May 1883, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.[27]

43. ii. Mary Eugenia Lackor [Genie], born 20 February 1885, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.[27]

44. iii. Edna Martha Lackor, born 3 October 1888, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.[27]

45. iv. Helen Adell Lackor, born 24 October 1890, Buffalo, Erie Co., N. Y.[27]

26. MARTHA ELIZA LACKOR (James Ryan, Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 21 September 1854,[27, 31] Royalton, Niagara Co. N. Y.,[31] died 5 December 1937[27, 31] at home of her son, J. Carl Flinchbaugh, 93 Virgil Ave., Buffalo, Erie Co., N. Y.[31] and was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery[27, 31] Lockport, N. Y. She married in Royalton, N. Y.,[27] 29 April (about 1876?)[32] Rosolvo E. Flinchbaugh, [Sol].[27, 32] He was born in 1851[33, 34] Niagara Co., N. Y. and died 12 April 1893[34] Lockport, N. Y. His death record has the name "Solomon," but if his nickname was "Sol," it is easy to see how it was confused. He was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Lockport, N. Y.[27] His parents were James and Hannah R. (———) Flinchbaugh.[33, 34]

Lockport, N. Y., in 1868, where she, and later, her husband and family, remained until about 1922, when she moved to Buffalo, Erie Co., N. Y. She was always interested in family history and her aunt, Eliza [Lizzie] (Daniels) Lackore, widow of Horace L. Lackor, sent her a great deal of family information. Martha also helped her aunt, Louisa (Lackor) Anderson, pack in preparation for her move to Michigan after the latter's husband's death. At that time she copied many dates and it is presumed by Martha's niece, Jessie (Lackor) Peck, that these were copied from the family Bible, which has never been found. Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh, about sixty years ago, gave all of this information to her niece, Jessie (Lackor) Peck, and she, in turn, sent these original handwritten notes (by Martha (Lackor) Flinchbaugh and Lizzie (Daniels) Lackore) to me in 1965.

CHILDREN OF ROSOLVO E. AND MARTHA ELIZA (LACKOR) FLINCHBAUGH:

i. Grace H. Flinchbaugh, born 22 July 1877 and died 3 September 1877; probably born and died in Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y. She was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Lockport, N. Y., and has the same gravestone as her grandparents, James and Harriet Lackor.[35]

46. ii. Frank Rexford Flinchbaugh, born 28 May 1879, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y.[27, 32]

iii. Carl James Flinchbaugh, born 7 June 1890,[27, 32] Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y., and died 24 February 1944[27, 32] in Buffalo, Erie Co., N. Y. He was buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Lockport, N. Y.[27] He married Ruth Lillian Blackley,[32] but they had no children.[32] No further record.

iv. Bert Rosolvo Flinchbaugh, born about 17 April 1893, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y. (five days after his father's death).[27] He died 19 July 1913[32] in Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y., and is buried in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery, Lockport, N. Y.[27]

27. ALTON B. BRINK (Nabby E. Lackor [Abby], Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 4 February

1848,[36, 37] Niagara Co., N. Y.,[36] probably Royalton. He died 13 March 1904, Charlevoix,[37, 38] Charlevoix Co., Mich. and is buried in Riverside Cemetery in Plot 5, Lot 17, Clock 7, Charlevoix, Mich.[39] He had lived in Royalton, Niagara Co., N. Y., and in 1855, he was with his father and second wife in the Town of Lockport.[40] In 1860[41] and 1865[42] he was listed with his Lackor grandparents in Royalton, N. Y. About 1874 he went to Pierpont and Frankfort, Mich.,[38] and by 1886 had settled in Charlevoix, Charlevoix Co., Mich.[36] He was a carpenter[37] and for many years was in charge of the Charlevoix County Jail.[38] He enlisted 8 December 1863, Royalton, N. Y., as a private to serve three years.[36] He was with Company D, Eighth Regiment, New York Heavy Artillery and was transferred 5 June 1865 to Company K, Tenth New York Infantry, and mustered out with the company, 30 June 1865 at Munson's Hill, Va.[36] Alton Brink was a member of Baxter Post G. A. R. and Charlevoix Fire Company.[38] His Army[36] records also show him as Aldon, Alvin, Alfred, and Elton.

Alton B. Brink was married 29 December 1873[36] Rushville, Yates Co., N. Y. by John Sayre, Justice of the Peace (his death certificate[37] has marriage age as 27, i.e. 1875) to Clarissa Caroline Housel [Clara]. She was born about 1854, Potter, Yates Co., N. Y.[36] and died 8 December 1905, Potter, Yates Co., N. Y., of diabetes.[38] She was buried in Middlesex, Yates Co., N. Y. Prior to her death she lived in Potter, N. Y., from August to December, 1905,[36] and before that, she had lived in Michigan. Her parents were John D. and Delila R. (———) Housel.[36] It is quite possible her mother's maiden name was Delia (Delila?) Deforest.[43]

CHILDREN OF ALTON B. AND CLARISSA CAROLINE (HOUSEL) BRINK

(note—his death certificate indicated he had four children):

i. Alta E. Brink, born 8 March 1876,[36] Michigan, and died prior to 1966.[44] In 1904 she lived in Charlevoix, Mich.[33] She was married 15 April 1899, Charlevoix, Charlevoix Co., Mich., to W. W. Bohn (probably William Wesley Bohn, since a person of that name signed Clara (Housel) Lackor's widow's pension application in 1904.[30]) by A. F. Nagler, clergyman.[45] Witnesses were Edward Brink and Mattie Brink, both of Charlevoix. W. W. Bohn was born about 1875 in England, son of William and Louise (Richards) Bohn.[45] In 1899, his occupation was listed as electrician and he resided then in Charlevoix, Mich.[45]

I could find no records of children or anything further about this family. The Michigan county clerks in Van Buren and Charlevoix Counties checked their birth records for several years and found nothing.

47. ii. Martha E. Brink [Mattie], born 24 March 1878,[36] Michigan.

48. iii. Edmond L. Brink, born 19 December 1880[36] Michigan.

49. iv. Leo Dale Brink, born 1 August 1895,[36] Charlevoix, Charlevoix Co., Mich.[36]

28. MARY LOUISE LARUE (Sophia Malinda Lackor, Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 7 August 1854[46, 47] Northport, Leelanau Co., Mich. She supposedly was the first white child born in the county. She died 2 June 1945, Richmond Hill, Queens Co., N. Y.;[47] she was cremated and her ashes buried in Maple Grove Cemetery, Leelanau Co., Mich.[48] Before her marriage she was an art supervisor in Lockport, N. Y., schools and used to travel between schools by horse and buggy.[47] Although her parents were living, she went, when she was young, about eight or nine years old, to live with her aunt and uncle in Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y. Their only child had died young. The 1865, 1870, 1875 and 1880, Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y., state and national censuses list her with the John and Louisa (Lackor) Anderson family.[49] She was named for two Lackor aunts—Mary (Lackor) Terry and Louisa (Lackor) Anderson. During the Civil War she read war news from the newspapers to her aunt and uncle.[47] After her marriage she moved to Brooklyn, N. Y., until 1884, when she returned to Lockport,[47] N. Y. About 1889 to 1891 they moved to Rochester, Monroe Co., N. Y., and remained there until 1925 when she moved to Richmond Hill, Queens Co., N. Y., to live with the family of her son, Howard LaRue McCall. She stayed there until she died.[47]

Mary Louise LaRue was married 27 October 1881[50, 51] in Lockport, Niagara Co., N. Y., at her uncle's, John Anderson, home, by the Reverend John Stebbins Bacon[52] to Edwin R. McCall, as his second wife. He was born 3 February 1842 in Charlottesville Twp., Norfolk Co., Ontario, Canada,[53] and died 18 September 1827, Rochester, Monroe Co., N. Y.[54] His burial is in Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester, N. Y., third part, newest section.[54, 55] His parents were Duncan and Frances [Fanny] (Hervey) McCall.[53, 56] Until about 1871,

Edwin farmed in Canada and later went into the fruit preserving business.[57] He was an inventor and manufacturer of farm implements. His first marriage was 2 February 1865[58] to Caroline Carpenter,[56] who was born 9 May 1843,[59] probably in Saltfleet Twp., Wentworth Co., Ontario, Canada, and died 10 December 1875,[59] City of Hamilton,[60] Wentworth Co., Ontario, Canada, and was buried in the cemetery opposite Wesleyan Chapel, Saltfleet Twp.[59] She was the daughter of Charles Carpenter and his second wife, Elizabeth (Hotterman) Pettit who had previously been married to Charles Pettit.[16] The McCalls lived in Waterloo, Iowa, about 1872 to 1874.[47] Children of Edwin R. and his first wife, Caroline (Carpenter) McCall are listed here.[62, 63] They are not Lackor descendants, however:

Herbert Duncan McCall, born 22 December 1866,[62] Charlottesville Twp.,[63] Norfolk Co., Ontario, Canada and died 2 January 1873[62] in Waterloo, Iowa.[62] No burial record has been found as yet.

Y., with her aunt and uncle, John and Louisa (Lackor) Anderson.[49] Her sister, Mary Louise LaRue, was also there. Della married about 1882[68] Arnold Peter Comstock [Peter], as his third wife. He was born about 28 July 1842, New York,[70] and died 16 February 1892, Sand Lake, Kent Co., Mich., aged 49 years, 7 months, 20 days.[70] He was a wagonmaker[70] and son of A. P. and Mary (———) Comstock.[70] He had been married first 7 November 1863 by the Reverend T. A. Blades, in Adrian, Mich., to Mary E. Thorp.[71] At that time, they were both from Adrian, Mich. Witnesses were John W. Finch and Frank Finch.[17] Mary (Thorp) Comstock died 10 February 1877.[71] Arnold Peter Comstock married second 9 November 1877, Big Rapids, Mecosta Co., Mich., Kiamisia J. Tenbraeck.[72]

He was born 15 April 1856[75, 76] in Perth, Ontario, Canada,[75, 76] and died 6 January 1939[75, 76] in Lowell Twp., Kent Co., Mich.[75] He was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Lowell, Mich.[75, 76] His parents were Daniel and Margaret (Huis) Bowes.

After the death of his first wife, Carrie (LaRue) Bowes, he married in 1913[76] Nettie (———) Balcom, who had been married to a Mr. Balcom. She was from Cascade, Mich. She had four children by her first husband: Inez Balcom, who married a Mr. Lewis and in 1939 was living in Flint, Mich.; Harvey Balcom and Frank Balcom, both of whom lived in Flushing, Mich. in 1939; and Harley Balcom, who also lived in Flint, Mich. in 1939.[76] They are not Lackor descendants.

The sketch about Patrick Bowes in his obituary[76] said:

". . . came to Michigan in 1874. He entered the building and construction trade in Traverse City and Muskegon, and came to Lowell in 1912 to act as foreman in the laying of the Main Street pavement.

". . . In earlier life, he worked in the lumber woods of Northern Canada and it was during this period that he fought with Canadian soldiers and was wounded in the suppression of the Reel Rebellion.

"Mr. Bowes had served the county twelve years as deputy sheriff and gave the village many years of service as constable and marshal. He was widely known to Western Michigan due to his ability in catching escaped criminals from the Ionia Penal Institutions."

CHILD OF PATRICK H. AND CARRIE MILDRED (LARUE) BOWES: [77, 78]

53. Bernice Malinda Bowes, born 23 July 1894, Michigan. [77, 78]

31. FRANK JOHN LARUE, M.D. (Sophia Malinda Lackor, Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 24 February 1872 [46, 78, 79] in Empire Twp., Leelanau Co., Mich. [79] He died 9 June 1949 at the University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor, Mich. [80] and is buried in Gilmore Township Cemetery, Benzie Co., Mich. [78] In 1887 he lived in Traverse City, Mich.; in 1889, in Empire, Mich.; in 1894 he was studying at Bellevue Hospital Medical College, New York City and in 1895, he studied at the University of Virginia. He practised first in Empire Township and was there in 1897, but by 1902 had moved to Otsego Co., Mich. In 1904 he was at Grand Rapids Medical College and from 1906 was a physician and surgeon in Elberta, Benzie Co., Mich. [78]

Dr. Frank John LaRue married 13 November 1897 in Burdickville, Leelanau Co., Mich. [78 81] Ellen Baver, who was born 22 July 1872 in Surnadal, Norway. She died 30 May 1969. [81] In recent years she lived in her home in Elberta, Benzie Co., Mich. in the summers and in the wintertime, at Manistee, Mich., with her daughter, Alice (LaRue) Dittmer. Her parents were Peter Utistua and Marit (Oldsdatter) Baver. [78]

Ellen Baver was a Registered Nurse and was the first female to graduate as a nurse west of New York State, in the Class of 1894 from University of Michigan, Ann Arbor Hospital. She had an excellent memory, much of which was by association, and she told her grandson, Frank John LaRue II, a tremendous amount of family information. [78]

It is not known if the Chaddocks had other children, but the following record of one child has been located. When this child was born in 1908, Ruley Chaddock was a farmer.[20]

CHILD OF ARULIUS P. [RULEY] AND MARTHA E. (BRINK) [MATTIE] CHADDOCK:

i. Alton Parker Chaddock, born 22 March 1908 in South Haven City, Van Buren Co., Mich.[20] Nothing further known.

48. EDMOND L. BRINK (Alton B., Nabby E. Lackor [Abby], Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John) was born 19 December 1880, Michigan.[14] The last record I have of him is in 1936, as a caller at his sister-in-law's funeral.[21] When he married in 1903, he lived in Charlevoix, Mich.,[22] and in 1904, in Frankfort, Mich.[16] He sent a postcard in 1917 from St. Marys, Ohio, to his brother, Leo D. Brink, who was then living in Durant, Mich.[21] He might have been on a trip. He did supposedly move to Florida to live.[15] He also supposedly married twice,[15] but no record of his second wife has yet been found. She signed the callers' list as Mrs. E. L. Brink when Mrs. Bertha Brink died 18 August 1936[21] Michigan state vital records do not have a marriage for Edmond Brink between 1921 and 1935. He might have married in another state.

Edmond L. Brink was married first 6 October 1903 at Sault Sainte Marie, Mich. by John A. Couch, Justice of the Peace, to Angeline Streich.[22] She was born about 1880 in Canada[22] and was the daughter of Charles and Mary (Jackson) Streich.[22] Witnesses to the marriage were Aubrey G. Harrison and Jesse Shotts, both of Sault Sainte Marie. No record of children from this marriage has been found. The Van Buren County Clerk in Paw Paw, Mich., and the

It is believed [15] that Edmond L. Brink and possibly his second wife had a son—or maybe his step-son and her son [15] named:

i. Neal Brink, born possibly between 1920 and 1930. [15] No more known.

49. Leo Dale Brink (Alton B., Nabby E. Lackor [Abby], Timothy Smith [Smith], John, John, John), born 1 August 1895 [14] in Charlevoix, Charlevoix Co., Mich., [14] died 1 September 1946 [15, 21] at his home, 6380 Rosemont, [23] Detroit, Wayne Co., Mich., of asthma. He was buried 4 September 1946, Mount Olivet Cemetery, Lot Number 388, Section 21, beside his wife, from Sutton Funeral Home. [15] He was a policeman with the Detroit, Fourth Precinct, from October 1922. [23] He had received four precinct citations. [23] In 1904, he lived in Frankfort, Mich., [16] and in 1909 he lived with his brother, Ed, in Charlevoix, Mich. [21] In 1917, a card was addressed to him in Durand, Mich. (probably Charlevoix Co.), and in 1919, he was in Detroit. [21] He lived at 2321 Honorah, Detroit until about 1933 when he moved to 6380 Rosemont, Detroit. [15, 21] In World War I, he had overseas duty in France, Company D, 310 Ammunition Training. [15]

Leo Dale Brink was married 19 August 1919, Detroit, Mich., [24] by Sidney D. Evans, Minister, Wesleyan Methodist Episcopal Church, to Bertha (Misch, or Mesch) Gibson. Witnesses were James B. McMahon and Mary McMahon, both of Detroit. [24] Bertha was born 6 March 1895, Detroit, Mich., [25] and died 18 August 1936, Marr Maternity Hospital, Detroit, Mich., of diabetes. [25] She was buried 21 August 1936, Mount Olivet Cemetery, 2529 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, Mich., by J. P. Norton Company. [15, 25] Her parents were August, born in Ballen, Switzerland, and his wife who was also born in Switzerland, name unknown, Misch. [25] Bertha Misch was married first to Floyd M. Gibson, of Detroit, and they were divorced 26 February 1917. [15]

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Most of these books are in the New York Public Library, New York City, and/or the New Jersey Historical Society Library, Newark. The following are the complete titles where not all of the details are given in the text footnotes. The abbreviated version, as given in the footnotes, is listed below in parentheses.

CEMETERY, CENSUS, CHURCH AND OTHER MISCELLANEOUS RECORDS

All of the New York State National censuses cited were seen from the microfilm reels in the New York Public Library. The microfilms of the National censuses for other states, unless otherwise noted, were rented and viewed on the microfilm reader in the Orange Public Library, Orange, N. J.

The New York State censuses for Niagara County were copied by Mrs. Julia Hull Winner, Historian, Gasport, N. Y., 1963-1967. She also copied Lockport City and Niagara County directory listings, cemetery records, newspaper items and other county and city items.
